HESS, CONFESSED AMNESIA FAKER, TO STAND TRIAL

PARTS WORK FOR G. M. IS OFFERED

Strikers Would Allow Production For Competing Firms

PARTIAL RESUMPTION OF WORK LIKELY TO FOLLOW

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Striking C. I. O. United Automobile Workers agreed today to relax their strike against General Motors Corporation to permit production of parts for competitors of the giant automotive concern.

A General Motors spokesman said the action might result in partial resumption of work in nearly half of the corporation's plants.

The unprecedented agreement to permit some of the striking U. A. W.-C. I. O. members to produce car parts needed by G. M. rivals came from R. J. Thomas, union president, in response to a proposal by General Motors President C. E. Wilson.

In a letter Thomas told Wilson the offer was "generous" and came as a "welcome surprise," but he expressed belief there are "only one or two items on which G. M. production is an essential part of the picture for other manufacturers."

"I shall of course accept it," Thomas wrote.

His letter gave no indication, however, of any retreat from the union's wage demands which Wilson has assailed as "unreasonable."

Discussing the possibility that strikers returning to work on parts might be asked to contribute portions of their pay to the union strike funds, a spokesman at International U. A. W.-C. I. O. headquarters said such a decision would be left to the local unions involved. He expressed belief some locals would take such action.

Noting that automobile industry policy is "to have at least two suppliers and preferably more for each part or component," Thomas said he would seek to ascertain the dependence of other manufacturers on G. M. production, and the size of present stockpiles.

After the Thomas letter, the international union might "play it safe" before the various G. M. local unions which may be involved. The U. A. W.-C. I. O. head said he would communicate again with Wilson "as soon as the necessary data has been collected and analyzed."

Principal General Motors plants, a corporation spokesman said employed more than 40,000 of the 175,000 workers now on strike in more than 70 factories. How many of these would be affected by any partial resumption of production, he said, was impossible to estimate at present. Approximately 50 per cent of G. M. plants make parts in varying quantities. The AC spark plug plant at Flint, Mich., produces, in addition to plugs, fuel pumps which the spokesman said were used by about 90 per cent of the motor car industry. It employs nearly 10,000 workers.

The Wilson-Thomas agreement was the first indication of a break in the shutdown that spread through the nation's G. M. plants when the U. A. W.-C. I. O. struck Nov. 21 to enforce demands for a 30 per cent wage increase within the corporation's present price structure.

Production of parts for competing manufacturers would coincide with the union's strike strategy of keeping other producers going while shutting down G. M. plants.

PESSIMISTIC OVER PEACETIME DRAFT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Three weeks of public hearings on universal military training left congressional sponsors pessimistic tonight over the chances of getting a peace-time draft law.

Publicly they are conceding nothing but privately they would settle right now for a law requiring every able-bodied male to take four months of military training at or near the age of 18.

President Truman has requested a law requiring one continuous year of training. The war and navy departments and the Chamber of Commerce of the United States have backed the proposal in hearings before the House military committee. So have numerous individuals and miscellaneous groups.

But some educators, churchmen and others are opposed to it. Still to be heard are spokesmen for organized labor and farm groups who opposed universal training last summer when the House post-war military policy committee held hearings.

The recent stand of the American Legion, advocating a four-month training program instead of the one year the Legion previously had favored, was a severe setback to the opinion of House members who have been holding out for one year.

"We will do well to get even a four-month program," one of them said privately. "Right now I'm not so sure any kind of a compulsory bill could get out of the military committee."

"It looks like we are whipped, but we're not ready to quit yet," said another.

An army observer who has been attending the hearings and who cannot be identified publicly commented that "the outlook isn't so good," and said the war department was resigned to accepting a compromise.

Truman Sees Army Defeat Navy, 32-13

Blankets Wrapped Around President Because Of Chilly Weather

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—President Truman returned to Washington 6:28 p. m. (CST) tonight after viewing the Army football team's 32 to 13 triumph over the Navy at Philadelphia.

He drove to the Navy yard where he was to board his presidential yacht the U. S. S. Williamsburg for a cruise on the Potomac, planning to return Sunday afternoon.

By Ernest B. Vaccaro
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—(AP)—President Truman witnessed army's 32 to 13 triumph over the Navy today along with more than 100,000 other shivering Americans, then departed by special train for Washington at 3:45 p. m. (CST).

In accordance with tradition, Mr. Truman-cooled for both sides, sitting during the first half of the game on the Army side, the latter half in the Navy stands.

He and Mrs. Truman got so cold during the early part of the game that secret service men wrapped blankets about their shoulders. Both boxes were steam-heated, although not enclosed. It was the president's first real holiday since his Caruthersville, Mo., and Reelfoot lake trip in early October. He seemed to enjoy himself.

He chatted gaily with Mrs. Truman.

OFFICERS SOLVE FINK BURGLARY

Coverdale And Busby Say Looting Admitted By Two Youths

Solution of the burglary of Fink, the Tailor's here Tuesday night was announced last night by Sheriff Milton Coverdale and Police Chief J. D. Busby after the two officers had questioned two youths being held in the Rapides parish jail at Alexandria.

Sheriff Coverdale and Chief Busby said Burnett Murray, 17, Oak Grove, and Milton Place, 18, Natchitoches, had admitted breaking into Fink's men's clothing establishment and taking $50 from the cash register and making off with clothing valued at $43.

Murray and Place were arrested at Alexandria Thursday in connection with a cafe robbery at Boyce. The youths were said to have admitted to Rapides authorities that they had participated in a burglary here and at Oak Grove.

Sheriff Butler of Oak Grove joined Sheriff Coverdale, Chief Busby and Sgt. H. L. Tolbert, the latter identification officer of the Monroe police department, and the quartet went to Alexandria to question the youths and obtain alleged confessions to the burglary and two robberies in Oak Grove.

Local authorities said that as soon as the Rapides court had disposed of the charges against the youths in the Boyce cafe case that they would be transferred to West Carroll authorities. The youths were quoted as saying they robbed the places in Oak Grove first, came on to Monroe to rob Fink's by smashing a rear door with an iron bar, and then going on to Boyce for their cafe job.

Chief Busby and Sheriff Coverdale said most of the clothing taken in the Fink case had been recovered. The clothing consisted of two suits, four overcoats, two top coats, two overalls, a pair of pants, a leather jacket, and gloves.

HELD AFTER BODY OF WIFE IS FOUND

TOWSON, Md., Dec. 1.—(AP)—A 47-year-old electrician in the cellar of whose home officers found the body of his missing wife buried in a shallow grave, was formally charged with her murder today.

Magistrate T. Frank Martin announced he had issued a murder warrant against Frederick Emil Roessler on complaint of Lt. George Hohman of the Baltimore county police.

Filing of charges followed by a few hours' discovery of the body of Mrs. Clara Roessler, 43, by a searching party headed by Hohman which went to the Roessler home in suburban Essex.

Hohman said Roessler's case would be submitted to the grand jury Tuesday. The officer said that the defendant's son, an army corporal, was being held in $1,000 bail as material witness.

Mrs. Roessler's badly decomposed body, found only in a slip, was identified by Sgt. Carroll Simmons, one of the policemen who unearthed it. A bullet was embedded in the skull. Simmons said he recognized Mrs. Roessler from several visits she had made to the Essex police station. On three occasions, he said, Mrs. Roessler had sworn out complaints charging her husband with assault, once with a brick, but had withdrawn the warrants before they had been served.

Expected To Follow Failure Of Labor-Management Parley

CONFAB FAILS TO YIELD 'ANYTHING CONCLUSIVE'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Failure of the labor-management conference to produce concrete machinery for settling industrial strife led to predictions tonight that Congress now would act on an anti-strike bill.

Representative Michener, Republican, Michigan, a member of the House rules committee which reported the measure to the floor last Wednesday, said he had opposed "action in Congress irritating labor or management" during the conference but that he now felt Congress should go ahead. Other congressmen had taken a similar stand.

Two of the bill's supporters, Reps. Howard Smith, Democrat, Virginia, and Cox, Democrat, Georgia, told reporters they might seek a vote next week. The measure would impose heavy penalties on unions which violate no-strike clauses in labor contracts.

House leaders omitted the anti-strike bill from next week's schedule. But any member of the rules committee can call it up on the floor. Cox and Smith are committee members as well as Michener.

Michener said he thought "a courageous statement" from the president would "obviate the necessity for anti-strike legislation at the moment." But lacking any signs from the White House, Michener said Congress should pass legislation at once to make labor "as responsible for its contracts and acts as is management."

The press officer of the labor-management conference, Fred C. Smith, predicted that "more strikes, more industrial upheavals of all sorts, strong government and congressional action" were almost certain to ensue.

Smith said in an interview that failure of the conference to produce a "anything conclusive" signaled a need for stronger White House leadership to avert a labor crisis.

The meeting might have been saved, he said, had President Truman taken a hand when it bogged down instead of sticking to a decision that there should be no government interference. "There is a difference," Smith said, "between guidance and interference."

He added that the industrial outlook raises a question "whether the government is to retire to a position of minor importance while selfish factions declare open warfare for the control of vital situations."

A member of the publishing house of Simon and Schuster and former vice-president of American Broadcasting Company, Smith attended all meetings of the conference's executive committee, closed to the press and most delegates.

David Saranoff, president of the Radio Corporation of America, a conference delegate who touched off a

FAVOR CONTINUING JOINT STAFF CHIEFS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Two setups which the late President Roosevelt created for war-time operations of both next week when Adm. William D. Leahy, only officer ever to serve as chief of staff for a president, testifies Tuesday before the military committee conducting the lengthy hearings on legislative proposals for a single department of the services.

Leahy was selected by President Roosevelt when he set up the post in the White House and has continued to serve President Truman.

All war department spokesmen have urged speedy action on unification of the armed forces into a single cabinet department with co-equal land, sea and air forces.

Every navy department witness has opposed such a consolidation with the frank argument that the smaller peace-time navy would be in an unfavorable minority position.

Despite this clash most generals and admirals, as well as civilian secretaries, urged that Congress give legal and permanent status to the joint chiefs staff and the special presidential advisor.

Rear Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, latest navy witness, said that "in Washington unity of operational command and should be adequately achieved under the president by the joint chiefs of staff and their numerous subordinate agencies."

He said that "in Washington unity of operational command and should be adequately achieved under the president by the joint chiefs of staff and their numerous subordinate agencies."

ENVOY TO HEAR WOES OF CHINA

Marshall Expected To Get Reports From Both Sides

CHUNGKING, Dec. 1.—(AP)—An exhaustive report of China's fratricidal troubles will be submitted to General Marshall when he comes to Chungking.

There was speculation that the new U. S. Ambassador also would visit the Communist capital of Yenan to confer with Mao Tse-tung, Communist leader, and his commander in chief, Gen. Chu Teh.

Failing that, the Communist side will be presented by Chou En Lai, deputy Communist leader, scheduled to return from Yenan to Chungking within a fortnight.

It was learned that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek would be assisted in his discussions with Marshall by Premier T. V. Soong, and Foreign Minister Wang Shi-Chiang.

War Minister Gen. Chen Cheng also is expected to attend, and it was reported that Gen. Ho Ying-Chin, commander-in-chief of the Nationalist army, was coming here from north China for the talks.

Meanwhile, Chungking got a great lift from the official announcement of a new Soviet agreement under which the Russians will delay until Jan. 3 their withdrawal from vital Manchuria.

This one-month postponement will give the Chungking government time to send administrative personnel and troops into strategic cities of Manchuria ahead of Chinese Communists, who have been taking over areas as soon as the Russians retire.

It was not yet known whether the agreement would permit American forces to carry Nationalist troops into Manchuria by sea and air. The Russians so far have opposed the entry of American forces into the territory.

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of U. S. Forces in China, was noncommittal on this report when questioned by correspondents in Shanghai.

"Manchuria," he said, "is a Russian theater of operations and if the Chinese and Russians are holding discussions in that regard, they are on a higher level than myself. The two

'SACRED COW' PILOT WEDS TEXAS GIRL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Lt. Col. Henry Tift Myers of Tifton, Ga., pilot of President Truman's plane "Sacred Cow," and Miss Maidee Williams, of Ft. Worth, Tex., were married this afternoon at Bethesda, Md.

The simple ceremony took place at the home of Colonel Myers' sister, Mrs. A. Leroy Miller. Shortly afterward, the couple left for a wedding trip.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. H. W. Williams, of Ft. Worth. They will make their home in Washington while Colonel Myers continues his duty as pilot of the presidential C-54.

IRAN'S PREMIER MAY QUIT POST

Reportedly Will Be Replaced By Pro-Russian Leader

TEHRAN, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The resignation of Premier Mahmed Hakimi in favor of a pro-Russian leader was rumored in government circles tonight after the Russians had begun a surprise evacuation of Tehran.

Hakimi said he would resign within a week and probably would be replaced by the pro-Soviet Ghamam Saltaneh, former Iranian premier.

In London the Iranian ambassador said he had not heard of the resignation report, but he did not appear surprised. Of Saltaneh he said: "The Russians always wanted him in office."

Russian troops completely evacuated the railway station, communications center and private billets, including the military headquarters, in a withdrawal from Tehran that began Thursday night.

The reports that Hakimi would resign followed the replacement of the Tehran mayor, Ghamam Saltaneh, by the minister of posts and telegraph, Mahmud Nahrman, described as a Soviet sympathizer.

Government circles said that four other officials would be replaced.

Hakimi was scheduled to reply tomorrow in the national assembly to a Soviet note denying passage of

BUSINESS MEN CAN RENDER AID

This Group Can Help To Put Good Fellows Over With Success

Previously acknowledged $116.00
Jim Cox 5.00

If they would add one more noble deed to their year's program, civic clubs of Monroe and West Monroe should each make a contribution to Good Fellows. Their luncheons either this week or next week would be a good time for the presidents of these groups to broach the subject to their members. Let them explain to the Lions, Kiwanis, Rotarians and other local civic organizations the need of this fund.

A contribution from each civic group here would tend to swell the funds of Good Fellows considerably. We hope to see the fund that is today reported doubled and tripled in a hurry.

Individual contributions should begin coming in faster, too, for these especially are needed if the fund is to reach anything like the amount required to give proper assistance. Coins wasted here and there could be put to good use if they are sent to the Good Fellows cause.

Every organization, every club and each of the larger firms in the Twin Cities are invited to do their bit toward the alleviation of suffering and disappointment among the poor this year at a time when the disappointment is keener than at any other time.

Every check or monetary donation made to Good Fellows Fund is distributed to the best advantage among needy families of the community.

Another idea. Why not every business man in the two cities take upon himself the role of Good Fellow? Suppose each business man of Monroe and West Monroe singles out a family needing help and agrees to see that this family is properly cared for at Christmas time. You can easily see how the situation would thus be relieved.

That should be the attitude to pursue in this campaign. Every man in

7 LOSE LIVES IN OLD FOLKS' HOME

METROPOLIS, Ill., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Seven and possibly nine men lost their lives in a fire at an old people's home here late today. Only one man was known to have escaped.

Identified dead were listed as: James Morgan, Elijah Culver, John Davis, George C. Steers, Millard Jones, Dr. George Kerr and Tom Tolukas.

Two bodies were believed to be in the debris of the fire.

William Cummings escaped from the flames and was taken to a hospital.

The men were on the second floor of the home operated by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bowman.

Steers was said to have been one of John L. Sullivan's trainers.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Oliver Stevens, 50, died in a hospital here today of a pistol shot wound in the head two hours after he was found near the body of his wife.

Listens Intently As Spy's Testimony Links Co-Defendants With Worst Horrors Of Nazism

By Daniel De Luce
NUERNBERG, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Rudolf Hess, self-confessed amnesia faker, was ruled fit to stand trial today, and then listened intently as defense attorneys failed to break down a German spy chief's testimony linking some of his co-defendants with the worst horrors of Nazism.

British Lord Justice Sir Geoffrey Lawrence announced the international military tribunal's decision that Hess was "capable of standing trial," with no further medical examination necessary. Before the court opened, Hess had regaled his fellow defendants with the story of his lost-memory hoax.

Attorneys for Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, Hermann Goering, and Joachim von Ribbentrop sought in vain to upset the story told by Maj. Gen. Erwin Lahusen, former officer of the German counter-intelligence, and first prosecution witness. Lahusen had not mentioned Hess, and Hess' attorney put no questions to Lahusen today.

But eight other German lawyers for three hours grilled Lahusen, who yesterday declared that Hitler and the entire German high command were to blame for atrocities on the eastern front.

The attorney for Franz von Papen, wily diplomat in the days of Nazi power politics, extracted from Lahusen an expression of belief that von Papen "stayed on in a political capacity in order to exercise a mitigating influence" on Nazi policy.

Keitel's attorney, Otto Nelte, declared Keitel had denied Lahusen's testimony that his client had ordered the assassination in 1940 of the French General Maxime Weyand, and demanded written proof from Lahusen.

Lahusen replied that the order was given verbally, but that he had been present "at a conference where Keitel asked me what happened about it."

The witness said that Keitel's orders to assassinate both Weyand and Gen. Henri Giraud never were carried out by Admiral Wilhelm Canaris, Greek-born head of the German army's counter-intelligence section to which the witness was attached.

Keitel's attorney let slip an admission that orders for branding Soviet war prisoners were the "result of a terrible misunderstanding" at the Fuehrer's headquarters. The attorney asked Lahusen if such was the case, and Lahusen replied that he did not know.

To von Ribbentrop's counsel, Lahusen only reaffirmed that the former foreign minister said in September, 1939, that Polish farms must be burned and Jews killed.

Goering's attorney diverged far from preceding testimony to inquire if Lahusen had failed to report promptly the American landing in North Africa. "Please don't make me responsible for my whole department," Lahusen retorted. "This was not my affair."

Counsel for Ernest Kaltenbrunner, ailing former chief of the Reich's criminal police, being tried in absentia, was stopped short in attempting to prove that his client had limited control over the Gestapo. Lahusen recalled that he had met Kaltenbrunner only once—a day in Munich when two university students were executed for distributing leaflets containing an appeal to the army—and that Kaltenbrunner had spoken cynically of the student's fate.

Lahusen denied knowledge of a protest which the attorney for Hans Fritzsche, chief of the German propaganda service, said his client had made in 1942 to Field Marshal Friedrich von Paulus against execution of Red Army prisoners.

The tribunal denied a request by the defendants that they be given the right to conduct their own examination of witnesses.

WOMAN CRITICALLY SHOT IN ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Two negroes were arrested tonight in connection with the shooting today of Miss Bernice Roy, 33, of Port Arthur, Tex., Detective Lieutenant John Groesch, Jr., said.

Miss Roy remained in critical condition in a hospital suffering from a gunshot wound over the right eye.

Groesch said the men arrested were Wilbert Powell, 18, and Joseph Besser, Jr., 19, both of New Orleans. Assistant District Attorney Henry J. Voss said he had ordered the men booked on charges of armed robbery, attempt to commit aggravated rape and attempt to murder, and directed that bail be set at $50,000 each.

Voss quoted Staff Sgt. William S. Meers, 23, as saying he was escorting the young woman home from a night club when two Negroes threatened them with pistols, while one robbed him of a ring, watch and money and attempted to attack the girl, whom he knew as "Bernie." Meers said his companion screamed, the men began to run, then one turned back and fired a shot which struck her over the right eye, Voss added.

Identification of the victim was made by her landlady, Police Officer William Walsh said.

Sergeant Meers told police two Negroes held him and his companion up at pistol point, took his ring, watch and wallet. The shot was fired when the woman screamed, he said. Meers told the officers he resides at Anderson, Inc., and is stationed at Gulfport, Miss.

GOERING SAYS HE'S NAZI AND WOULD STILL FOLLOW HITLER

NUERNBERG, Germany, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Rudolf Hermann Goering, on trial for his life before the international military tribunal, said flatly today that he was still a Nazi and that if he had a chance to try again he would "again support the Fuehrer."

"As a representative of the system of government inaugurated by Adolf Hitler I stand ready to be judged," the former Reichsmarshal said in reply to written questions presented through his attorney, Otto Stahmer, who also transmitted the reply.

"I consider myself a true paladin of my Fuehrer. I was a disciple and a follower."

Stahmer indicated that Goering viewed with disapproval high placed German officials who sought refuge

DOSTLER EXECUTED BY FIRING SQUAD

AVERSA, Italy, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Nazi General Anton Dostler, shouting "long live Germany," died today before an American firing squad for ordering the execution of 15 American soldiers captured behind German lines in March, 1944.

The 54-year-old general first high ranking German officer to die for war crimes in western Europe was executed in the firing pit of a prisoner of war stockade two miles from Aversa. Asked if he had anything to say, he backed "no," but immediately caterwaulled shouts in a high-pitched voice "Es Lebe Deutschland."

Quickly a black hood was placed over his head and Lt. John R. Magnovallo of Astoria, N. Y., gave the order to fire. Every bullet went into the white patch pinned over his heart.

Capt. A. N. Liberman of Bangor, Me., a medical officer, pronounced him dead at 9:11 a. m., two minutes after the 12 riflemen fired.

Dostler was convicted in October by a U. S. court martial, which disregarded his defense plea that he was carrying out orders of his superiors to execute the Americans. The Americans were captured near La Spezia after they had landed behind German lines in a daring attempt to blow up a railroad tunnel.

QUILL, SCROLL ORGANIZED HERE

St. Matthew's Institutes
Chapter Of High School Organization

A chapter of the Quill and Scroll, international honorary society of high school journalists, was organized at St. Matthew's School November 23. Included in the club are members of the Sodality publicity committee who publish the Sodality paper, namely Misses Ellen Browne, Cecile Danna, Janet Voorhees, Terry de Jalve and Lerona Miller. Before permission to organize a chapter could be obtained a copy of the Sodality paper, "Mary's Memo," was submitted to the scrutiny of the council of Quill and Scroll at Northwestern University, Chicago, Ill.

Qualifications for membership as stated in the chapter Chronicle are:

1. Candidates may be elected from the newspaper, yearbook, magazine or handbook staffs.
2. They must be of junior or senior classification, or post-graduate.
3. They must be in the upper third of their class in general scholastic standing at the time of their election.
4. They must have done superior work in writing, editing, or business management.
5. They must be recommended by the supervisor or by the committee governing publications.
6. They must be approved by the executive secretary of the society.

With the charter, now framed and placed in the classroom, was included a prayer for writers: "Help me, O Lord, in a land of borrowed ideas to keep and develop what originality I already possess. Forgive my indifferent spelling and my careless literary lapses, and prune my manuscript of faded phrases and dangling sentences. And when my typewriter is covered with dust, O Lord, add to my unfinished story a happy ending to all I have dreamed and thought and prayed."

LARGE CLASS WILL JOIN LEGION POST

Another large class will be inducted by the L. B. Faulk Post No. 13 of the American Legion Monday night.

Any World War II men or women, who have honorable discharge papers can bring them and be at once admitted to the post, stated C. B. Braun, adjutant.

A new oil exploration and production center, to be devoted to studying new methods of finding oil and getting it out of the ground, will be opened in Houston, Texas.

GAY COMEDY TO BE PRESENTED

"Blithe Spirit" Is Stated
By N. J. C. Players
Thursday

"Blithe Spirit," hilarious comedy by Noel Coward, will be presented by the Wig and Mask Club of Northeast Junior College in Brown Hall Auditorium Thursday, December 6 at 8 p. m. The show, which will be the first production sponsored by the organization this year, is being directed by Miss Sarah Helen Word, instructor in speech at the college.

The cast is composed primarily of students who have had experience in high school and college plays. Several of the roles are being carried by those now majoring in speech.

Bonnie Holloway, Monroe sophomore, plays the title role as Charles Condomine's first wife, the blithe spirit. Bonnie appeared in numerous high school plays and in two major productions at the college last year. She will be immediately remembered as the English nurse in "City Haves" and as the wife in "Father Takes a Wife." Her brilliant characterization as the "blithe spirit" will add another laurel to her already crowded collection. Bonnie is a member of Delta Psi Omega and vice-president of the Wig and Mask Club.

Malcolm Steen, Monroe sophomore, as Charles Condomine, the frustrated English novelist whose unhappy choice lies between his deceased first wife, Elvira, and his second wife, the lovely Ruth. Malcolm, a speech major, is well known to local residents for his portrayal of Morton in "Murder in Rehearsal" and of Jun'or in "Father Takes a Wife." He will also be remembered as the director of the 1935 "Redskins on Parade." Last year Malcolm was president of the Wig and Mask Club and was awarded the presidency of Delta Psi Omega, honorary dramatic society, at N. J. C. this year.

The role of Charles' second wife, Ruth, is played by Yvonne Lusk, sophomore from Epps. Having starred in several high school plays, Yvonne a speech major, appeared in several major productions at the college last year. Her work in "Chintz Cottage," "Murder in Rehearsal," and "City Haves" will be especially remembered. Last year Yvonne was secretary of Delta Psi Omega and vice-president of the Wig and Mask Club. She was also awarded a scholarship to the Radio Drama workshop in Milwaukee. President of the Wig and Mask Club this year, Yvonne's portrayal of Ruth promises to be one of her best.

Cast in the role of Madame Arcati, the eccentric lady medium, is Juanita Ferguson, sophomore from Tallulah. Juanita appeared in several high school productions, some of which she produced and directed. She will be especially remembered for her role as Fanny in "Chintz Cottage" and as Julie in "Father Takes a Wife."

Fred Rhinehart, from Ohio, has the role of Dr. Bradman, friend of Charles. He appeared in operettas and plays in high school and has had some professional experience which included three seasons doing a ventriloquist act with Mardeen Magic Co. He gives a convincing performance as the doctor in "Blithe Spirit."

Cast in the role of Mrs. Bradman, is Latana Volk, Bastrop sophomore. Latana appeared in several plays at Tech where she was a member of the Little Theatre group. Local theatre-goers will remember her performance in "City Haves" and "Father Takes a Wife." She is a member of the Wig and Mask Club.

Gene Smith, Monroe sophomore, is cast as Edith, the maid. Having had previous high school experience, Gene appeared in "City Haves" and "Redskins on Parade." She is active in both the Wig and Mask Club and Delta Psi Omega.

FATHER MARSH IS ACCORDED HONOR

Monday, November 23, St. Matthew's School celebrated the birthday of their beloved pastor, Rev. J. C. Marsh, with a program and gifts to express their esteem and admiration. Mary Jean Hollis recited a poem, "Birthday Greetings." The students of the grammar grades presented a short skit, "Why I Must Attend School." The cast included: the announcer, Will Johnson, the school boy, Billy Lane, the school girl, Josephine Hamilton, aviator, Vincent Danna; dancer, Catherine Guerrier; policeman, Tommy Elliott; soldier, David Ebert; singer, Pat Young; and tramp, Theo DuGray. The high school girls' Glee Club sang "I Dream of You," and "Reverie" accompanied by Sr. Rose Marie, Miss Patricia Ann Guerin played "Lombardy Poplars" by Alden.

Following the program Father Marsh gave a short talk to the students in which he expressed himself as deeply touched since this was one of the happiest birthdays which he had yet experienced. He finished by giving all assembled his blessing.

COLLEGE GROUP TO RESUME MEETINGS

MEMPHIS, Dec. 1.—The Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools plans to resume annual general meetings next year, Dr. W. J. McConnell, president, announced today.

The executive committee, McConnell said, will meet next tomorrow to determine a time and place for the session. Because of wartime restrictions on travel, the organization has not held a general meeting since 1932. McConnell, president of North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, Tex., asserted the committee would not consider the status of the University of Texas which was placed on probation last July following a controversy between the university board of regents and President Homer P. Rainey.

The commission on institutions of higher education, McConnell explained, has made no report or recommendation concerning the university's status. He added that the executive committee would act only on a commission recommendation.

WOMEN'S GROUP DEMOCRACY AID

Basis Of Essential
Liberty

We have won the war. We have kept democracy safe for our nation. Now, we say again "Let Freedom Ring." Whether or not we make democracy strong and fine depends upon every citizen. Each citizen contributes for good or ill. Our problem is to make what we do count for democracy.

The League of Women Voters exists to help us do just that. For twenty-five years it has been helping individuals to become well-informed, thoughtful, participating citizens.

Since Democracy begins at home the League is firmly rooted in the local community. Solving problems in our own home town provides first-hand experience and produces results that we can see. Better schools, high standards for welfare, health and recreation services, are some of the things local Leagues are working for.

The local League—Monroe League of Women Voters—is headed by Miss Myrtle Rodgers. It has been very active for a new association and its object is to promote political education through active participation of citizens in government. It is the aim of the Monroe League of Women Voters to become informed and to inform others.

The Monroe League of Women Voters is affiliated with the Louisiana League of Women Voters which supports such measures as state aid for education, health and housing, equitable tax laws, protective laws for women and children and modern state constitutions. The Louisiana League is affiliated with the National League of Women Voters.

All of the members make up the National League of Women Voters. Together they work on such issues as international cooperation, an improved federal merit system, the control of inflation and the reorganization of Congress. The League concentrates on a few important measures in order to get many individuals in the community to become participating citizens. The League program is not a complete program of action for government. They act as the civic vitamin B for the entire community.

The members adopt the program at the annual meeting of the League. Representatives of the members adopt the state and national program, at state and national conventions. They decide upon a few goals of vital importance to all citizens. These goals become "The Program."

Goals which the League has worked for throughout the years are embodied in a "Platform" of general principles and fundamental aims. They are the chart and compass by which they sail. For twenty-five years the National League of Women Voters has sailed a progressive course, supporting such measures as maternal and child health, pure food, drug and cosmetic acts, pure civil service acts, reformed trade acts, lend-lease, price control and rationing, UNRRA, and the United Nations Charter and Bretton Woods. If you want to help strengthen democracy you will feel at home in the League. It will help you to vote more thoughtfully. It will stimulate your thinking on some of the great issues of the day. And it will encourage you to speak and act for what you believe.

Power in a Democracy springs from the people. What is said and done about government can make democracy strong. Make freedom ring in these United States, and know that if it rings clear and true it will be heard around the world.

The Monroe League of Women voters invites you to become a member.

In July of 1945 automobiles were being scrapped at the rate of 4,000 daily.

The cast included: the announcer, Will Johnson; the school boy, Billy Lane; the school girl, Josephine Hamilton; aviator, Vincent Danna; dancer, Catherine Guerrieri; policeman, Tommy Elliott; soldier, David Eberts; singer, Pat Young; and tramp, Theo DuGruy. The high school girls' Glee Club sang "I Dream of You," an "Reverie" accompanied by Sr. Rose Marie. Miss Patricia Ann Guerrero played "Lombardy Priests" by Alden.

Following the program Father Marsh gave a short talk to the students in which he expressed himself as deeply touched since this was one of the happiest birthdays which he had yet experienced. He finished by giving all assembled his blessing.

COLLEGE GROUP TO RESUME MEETINGS

MEMPHIS, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools plans to resume annual general meetings next year, Dr. W. J. McConnell, president, announced today.

The executive committee, McConnell said, will meet next tomorrow to determine a time and place for the session. Because of wartime restrictions on travel, the organization has not held a general meeting since 1942. McConnell, president of North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, Tex., asserted the committee would not consider the status of the University of Texas which was placed on probation last July following a controversy between the university board of regents and President Homer P. Rainey.

The commission on institutions of higher education, McConnell explained, has made no report or recommendation concerning the university's status. He added that the executive committee would act only on a commission recommendation.

WOMEN'S GROUP DEMOCRACY AID

Liberty

We have won the war. We have kept democracy safe for our nation. Now, we say again "Let Freedom Ring." Whether or not we make democracy strong and fine depends upon every citizen. Each citizen contributes for good or ill. Our problem is to make what we do count for democracy.

The League of Women Voters exists to help us do just that. For twenty-five years it has been helping individuals to become well-informed, thoughtful, participating citizens.

Since Democracy begins at home the League is firmly rooted in the local community. Solving problems in our own home town provides first-hand experience and produces results that we can see. Better schools, high standards for welfare, health and recreation services, are some of the things local Leagues are working for.

The local League—Monroe League of Women Voters—is headed by Miss Myrtle Rodgers. It has been very active for a new association and its object is to promote political education through active participation of citizens in government. It is the aim of the Monroe League of Women Voters to become informed and to inform others.

The Monroe League of Women Voters is affiliated with the Louisiana League of Women Voters which supports such measures as state aid for education, health and housing, equitable tax laws, protective laws for women and children and modern state constitutions. The Louisiana League is affiliated with the National League of Women Voters.

All of the members make up the National League of Women Voters. Together they work on such issues as international cooperation, an improved federal merit system, the control of inflation and the reorganization of Congress. The League concentrates on a few important measures in order to get many individuals in the community to become participating citizens. The League program is not a complete program of action for government. They act as the civic vitamin B for the entire community.

The members adopt the program at the annual meeting of the League. Representatives of the members adopt the state and national programs at state and national conventions. They decide upon a few goals of vital importance to all citizens. These goals become "The Program."

Goals which the League has worked for throughout the years are embodied in a "Platform" of general principles and fundamental aims. They are the chart and compass by which they sail. For twenty-five years the National League of Women Voters has sailed a progressive course, supporting such measures as maternal and child health; pure food, drug and cosmetic act; various civil service acts; reciprocal trade acts; lend-lease; price control and rationing; UNRRA; and the United Nations Charter and Bretton Woods. If you want to help strengthen democracy you will feel at home in the League. It will help you to vote more thoughtfully. It will stimulate your thinking on some of the great issues of the day. And it will encourage you to speak and act for what you believe.

Power in a Democracy springs from the people. What is said and done about government can make democracy strong. Make freedom ring in these United States, and know that if it rings clear and true it will be heard around the world.

The Monroe League of Women voters invites you to become a member.

60 INVITED TO MEET BY JUNIOR CHAMBER

More than 60 young men between the ages of 21 and 35, inclusive, have been invited to attend an important reorganization meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Virginia Hotel, Wednesday December 5, at 8 p. m. T. H. Scott, president, announced today.

"The purpose of this smoker meeting is to discuss a program of activities for 1946 and to elect new officers and directors for the coming year," Mr. Scott said. "This meeting will also afford the young men of the community and opportunity to renew old acquaintances and make new friends. We hope to set up an interesting program for next year. Everyone present may submit his ideas regarding future activities of the Junior Chamber during the informal discussion period. The Junior Chamber can be a potent factor in the future business and civic development of this community if it formulates a concrete plan of action and carries it to a successful conclusion."

"During the war years the organization functioned successfully although there were many factors that restricted the activities of the group. Now as we are about to begin a new year we should form a united body of young business and professional men and carry on an enlarged program."

"Because the age limits of 21-35 years of age inclusive will again be observed, it will be necessary to nominate candidates for 13 vacancies in the board of directors. The election of board members will be conducted by returning a ballot, which will be sent to all members after nominations are made."

Returning to the board are: Grayson Guthrie, Roy Updegraff, L. E. Mathis, Roy Bue, T. H. Scott, W. O. Webb, George Guerrero, L. A. West, Paul Reising, F. C. McConnell, and W. A. Johnson. This group will be the reception committee at the Wednesday night meeting.

"It is hoped that young men of the town will take advantage of this opportunity to render community service," Mr. Scott said.

SODALITY GROUP GOES DOWN STATE

A group of high school students left St. Martin's Saturday, December 1, for a tour of the state. Marksville, Louisiana. This trip completes two months' duty conducted by the Apostolic community, a very active unit in the diocese. Included in the mission trip were: clothes, shoes, drugs, toy, and canned goods. The students chosen to make the trip are those who have been outstanding in their work for the past two months. They are: Joe Guadalupe, Russell Young, J. D. Guadalupe, and Moses Gibson. White, Charles, D. D. Catherine Flay, Alvin, B. B. Vanden Salvant, and Miss Jean Holm.

Mrs. Patricia Sheehy, chairman of the young men and first co-helper, Joe Guadalupe, and Frank Laine, and Miss Margaret Eder and Alice Reynolds have been most generous in making plans to arouse interest in the mission.

BICYCLES STOLEN

UNO IS OFFERED MANY LOCATIONS

United States Has Inside Track But Site Is Undetermined

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The United States definitely has the inside track as home for the new United Nations capital, but the exact site of the new "international settlement" may lie anywhere between Niagara Falls, Miami and the Hawaiian Islands.

Twenty-seven separate localities already have been submitted to the United Nations preparatory commission, which will decide among other things where to place the world peace capital.

Applications range from a simple cable from New York's Mayor-Elect William O'Dwyer to personal promoting by hard-working civic delegations on the scene. United States delegates to the commission meeting itself are keeping a strict hands-off policy.

icy, even to the point of abstaining from voting on the site question. Thus far there has been no established procedure for application and the United Nations Organization still has an open ear for anyone who extends an invitation.

A vote on the United States as the home of the peace organization was taken in a 14-member executive committee last October and it is up to the preparatory commission to approve or disapprove. Final decision will be taken at the first assembly meeting in January, but since all assembly members are represented on the preparatory commission, the latter's choice is likely to be definite.

While it is still possible that the organization may go elsewhere than the U. S., an informal survey of delegates indicates the American site is virtually assured.

Of the total of 51 nations, 22 said they expected to vote for the United States, eight declared for Europe, seven were undecided and 13 were either undecided or awaiting instructions. Canada has instructions but has declined to divulge them. It requires 34 votes to decide the issue.

Britain and France still are fighting vigorously to obtain a European site. As a result, most delegates have expressed the opinion that an eastern American city probably will be chosen over San Francisco as a compromise. Such a choice would put UNO headquarters closer to 43 of the 51 member nations than would a west coast site. The main objection to the Golden Gate city is its distance from Europe. Delegations from the Black Hills in South Dakota, Philadelphia, Chicago and Denver have arrived here, and others from Boston, Atlantic City and San Francisco are expected.

While procedure has not yet been worked out, a committee of about 14 members probably will be established to study various invitations and listen to delegations present their cases.

LEGION FUND DRIVE TO OPEN ON DEC. 4

Joe Trammell, chairman of the finance committee of L. B. Faulk Post No. 13 of the American Legion announced that the drive for donations to construct a $100,000 annex to the present Legion Post would begin officially on December 4. This building will be known as the Memorial Hall and will be dedicated to those who served in World War II from Ouachita Parish.

Grover L. Holloway, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, stated that all requests for donations will be confined to the City of Monroe, and vicinity. Each donor making a contribution will receive a printed certificate from L. B. Faulk Post No. 13, signed by the Post Commander and the Adjutant, stating that a donation has been made to the American Legion Memorial Hall.

Sam Rubin, Jack Rogers, Jack Masur and Ivy Jordan have been named as chairman of various solicitation groups to assist Mr. Holloway. Anyone interested in making a donation to the Memorial Hall Fund is urged to contact anyone of the above named parties, or Mr. Holloway.

FIRE CAUSED BY FRICTION IN GIN

Friction in the gin stand was responsible for a small fire at George R. Harrington's cotton gin three miles out of the Sterling road yesterday, according to Monroe firemen who were summoned to extinguish the blaze. Firemen said the gin was stopped when the fire was discovered and that slight damage resulted.

Five grass fires were also extinguished by local fire fighters yesterday. The grass fires were at 900 South Third street, 310 McGuire street, 227 Paraguide drive, on Richwood road, and on the levee at 1904 Riverton street.

"Naturally, nobody ever stops thinking. If I had to do it all over again, naturally, there are some things I would do differently. Fundamentally I would say the leadership principle and national socialism were only possible solution for Germany at the time. We had to get away from the multi-party system. In America you have two parties. The United States has two major parties. We, before 1933 had 20 odd parties. It just wouldn't work."

In a supplementary statement, he added on this:

"I should again support the Fuehrer principle when we took over Germany," he asserted. "As to the leadership principle, I should of course not want it repeated with excesses but in its original moderate conception. Above all I should want to see incorporated an independent system of courts to which every citizen might take his troubles and where justice would be done him. As to the 26 points of the Nazi program, there is no party with principles to which every member subscribes in full. I, too, did not by any means subscribe to all. I am a National Socialist. I desire the elimination of multi-partisanship in politics. I am for community of our people (volks-gemeinschaft)."

down GM operations. On the other hand, return of some strikers to jobs might result in individual situations where they would watch their fellow-unionists re-entering their plants.

Wilson, who made the parts production offer to the union last night, expressed belief it was "very unfair" for General Motors to be singled out for a "labor blockade," and added, "nevertheless, it has always been our principle to take care of our customers if there was any possible way to do it."

Replying today, Thomas wrote: "Under the circumstances, I feel your proposal is a generous one, and as I said it came as a welcome surprise. I do sincerely trust that it means a basic change in the thinking of the top management of General Motors Corporation, which will bring a more sympathetic and realistic approach to the earnings problem of our employees, as well as the indicated sympathetic approach to the difficulties of your competitors."

"After all, we have no desire to 'blockade' General Motors as you put it. We only desire to maintain on a decent American level the standard of living of the 325,000 G. M. workers."

Wilson left for New York last night to attend Monday's meeting of General Motors directors there.

defendants who lacked counsel could participate in the questioning. All 20 defendants in the prisoners' dock have their own attorneys, as do two others being tried in absentia. The ruling came after U. S. Chief Prosecutor Justice Robert H. Jackson said that permitting the prisoners to examine witnesses would convert the trial into a "performance."

Dr. Otto Stahmer, attorney for Goering, explained afterwards that he made the request for cross-examination on behalf of his client because "as temperamental a man as Goering finds it nearly unbearable to sit there day after day without being able to open his mouth. He will explode if he doesn't get a chance soon to unburden himself."

Stahmer said that in many respects Goering was like a big boy, relatively easy to guide but with "occasional great outbursts of temperment."

The gaunt-faced hollow-eyed Hess, childishly gleeful over getting the spotlight at the trial, told his comrades before the session started about his faking amnesia.

Grand Admirals Karl Doenitz and Erich Raeder shook with laughter, and most of the others chuckled as Hess related the story to them.

When the session opened Hess laid out the novel he had been reading during the opening days of the trial, and followed the proceedings closely.

To Maj. Douglas Kelley, U. S. Army psychiatrist, Hess had boasted of his skilled navigation on his astounding flight to England in May, 1941. Hess confirmed reports that he had left a note for Hitler saying he was going to try to appeal for peace in the hope of what he termed saving the world from Bolshevism.

When the session opened Hess laid aside the novel he had been reading during the opening days of the trial, and followed the proceedings closely.

To Maj. Douglas Kelley, U. S. Army psychiatrist, Hess had boasted of his skilled navigation on his astounding flight to England in May, 1941. Hess confirmed reports that he had left a note for Hitler saying he was going to try to appeal for peace in the hope of what he termed saving the world from Bolshevism.

The committee took a holiday today but Chairman Barkley, Democrat, Kentucky, indicated that next week will be a six-day affair.

Gen. George C. Marshall, former chief of staff, probably will be the star attraction. Marshall has advised that he wants to testify before leaving on his assignment as ambassador to China.

ONE WORLD

BUENOS AIRES.—(AP)—Talk about the melting pot—Argentina, which has had a flood of immigration in the last two generations, is it. A streetcar, whose passengers are a fair cross-section of the population, collided with a beer truck and injured nine persons. They included an Austrian, an Italian, an Arab, a French woman and three Spaniards. Oh, yes—and two Argentines.

The Virgin Islands of the United States consist of three larger islands—St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John—and about 50 small islands, mainly uninhabited.

ARMY PILES UP EARLY LEAD TO WALLOP NAVY, 32 TO 13

Middies Make Real Battle Of Game During Last Three Quarters

THE STATISTICS
MUNICIPAL STADIUM, PHILA. DELPHIA, Dec. 1.—(P)—Statistics of the Army-Navy football game today:

Army Navy	First downs	Yards gained rushing	Forward passes attempted	Forward passes completed	Yards gained forward passing	Forward passes intercepted	Yards in passes returned	Punting average	Total yards all kicks returned	Yards lost by penalties	Opponents fumbles recovered
Army	10	110	6	1	106	2	56	31 29%	72	70	1
Navy	11	120	15	5	106	2	56	31 29%	72	70	1

By Gayle Talbot
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—(P)—Army's star-spangled array struck swiftly for three touchdowns in the opening period and defeated Navy, 32 to 13, as scheduled today, but not without being given a genuine dog-fight by the Middies in the final grueling 45 minutes of their annual football struggle.

A crowd of 102,000 in Municipal Stadium, including President Truman, saw the Tars recover from the opening shocks of the Cadets' offensive and not only avert what had threatened to become a shambles, but play the vaunted West Pointers on virtually even terms for the greater part of the contest.

The difference in the final analysis—that which gave the golden-helmeted Cadets their 18th straight victory and their second national football championship—was the ripping tearing running of those two great All-America backs, Glenn Davis and Felix (Doc) Blanchard.

Blanchard reeled off three touchdowns and Davis the other two through a furiously-fighting Navy defense that, for surprisingly long periods, checked and hamstringed what has been called one of the greatest attacks in gridiron history. Navy lost, but it put up a stout battle and steadfastly refused to fall apart before the famous Plainsmen.

The Middies not only scored against Army's first team, but they did it twice and the second time they went right through the middle of the Cadets' hitherto impregnable line.

When big Joe Bartos, Navy full-back, plunged across from the one-foot line in the fourth period it was the first time in nine games this year that an opponent had gone through the Army's first team forwards to score.

But, having given the Sailors full credit, Army still was the magnificent team. It met its traditional rival, the team that was bound to play over its head, and it proved to its ardent followers that their confidence had not been misplaced. The Cadets struck like shafts of lightning to score their touchdowns, and they won.

Although Army held a safe 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and drove arrogantly 56 yards to a touchdown after receiving the opening kick-off, it was destined to become a much better game than that, as the statistics show.

When it all was over Army had notched only 10 first downs to Navy's 11. By all means, rushing and passing, the champions piled up 266 yards against Navy's very respectable 226. The Middies, who promised to make it a struggle, gained 106 yards through the air to Army's 7. The Cadets, however, attempted only six passes.

A chill breeze had the spectators huddled in their blankets when the two captains, Army's Johnny Green and Navy's Dick Duden, called the flip at midfield. Green won, and for a change Army chose to receive the kick-off.

Arnold Tucker, the soldiers' ailing quarterback, ran the kick back to Army's 44. From there, in exactly seven plays, Army's great team drove to a touchdown.

Coach Com. Oscar Hagberg of the Navy had proved his point—Army couldn't call its shots, could not score in two plays.

But the Cadets did score in seven plays. Tucker, the invalid, ripped for 13, and Davis, on lateral from Tucker, picked up 19, electrifying the great crowd with his dippy-doo running. Finally, with the ball on the one-yard mark, Blanchard plummeted over. That was in three minutes and 28 seconds, quite up to the Army tradition.

Not much later, but after Navy had run for a couple of first downs, the boys from the plains struck again. This time they started from Navy's 42. On the first play the still-sailing Tucker banged through the Navy center for 25, and on the next play Blanchard, all 205 pounds of him, broke away and ran 17 for the score.

Davis, who up to this time had been watching his illustrious teammates' smoke, then decided to take a hand. With the ball reposing on Navy's 49-yard line, the result of a short kick by Navy's Bruce Smith, little scatter-foot took off around the Middies' right end, stopped abruptly at the sideline, and sprinted for a score. With Dick Waterhouse booting his second extra point in three attempts, that made it 20 to 0 and there were visions of a bad score against Navy—perhaps in the sixties.

That was why the crowd including possibly the president, got such a kick out of the Middies' come-back. Suddenly it turned into a football game. Army, instead of going on to win by whatever score it chose as Coach Earl Blaik's charges had in other games this year, found itself mixed up in a contest. The boys from Annapolis more or less took over the second period, handcuffing Davis and Blanchard, and right at the last they scored on a spectacular play.

With only 15 seconds remaining, and with the ball on Navy's 38, Bruce Smith, the Miami, Fla., boy, fell way back and threw a pass in the general direction of Clyde Scott, the Smack-crook, Ark., product.

It was a prodigious heave, fully 40 yards, and Scott gathered it in on Army's 35-yard line, just over Davis' finger tips. He lit out for the goal line, with Davis in pursuit, and just made it. Davis dived and hit him and knocked him down just as he crossed the last line. Jack Curren kicked the point to make it Army, 20-7.

Early in the third period Blanchard intercepted a short pass by Smith, who was passing in his own territory, and barged 45 yards to Army's fourth score, weaving his way past a half-dozen would-be tacklers. For the remainder of that quarter, the Cadets were deep in their own territory and doing on good whatsoever, though Army was leading, 26-7.

The final period was in its infancy when Davis, trying to pass and rushed by the Middle linemen, got off a throw he hoped would hit a friendly face. Instead, the ever-present Bruce Smith intercepted it and ran it to Army's 26, and from there the Tars banged to their second score—the first through the Army line.

Bill Barron rocketed through Army's stalwarts to the 15, carrying a couple of them with him. Joe Bartos busted the cadet middle for more yards and planted the ball on the three, and then he plunged it on a cross. That was the one that proved it was possible to score against the Army's first.

PELLONE, GIOVANELLI REMATCHED FOR FIGHT
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(P)—Youthful Lightweights Tony Pellone of New York and Patsy Giovannelli of Brooklyn, who fought a sizzling 10-rounder at St. Nick's arena last night with the decision going to Pellone, were rematched immediately for a repeat performance at Madison Square Garden Monday, Dec. 17.

Giovannelli, making his first comeback effort since his release from the army, had a slight edge in the first few rounds but tired to lose a close decision.

Gilmer Again Leads Crimson Tide To Impressive Football Victory

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 1.—(P)—Statistics: Mississippi State-Alabama football game today:

Miss. Ala. Mississippi	11	231	16	23	18	23	33	24	103	2	1

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 1.—(P)—Unbeaten Alabama gave an amazing demonstration of speed, power and passing here today to run up an overwhelming 55 to 13 homecoming day victory over a highly regarded Mississippi State eleven.

Today's win, before 22,000 fans, ended another unbeaten regular season for the Rose Bowl bound Crimson Tide.

Harry Gilmer's passing and running were almost entirely responsible for the first three Alabama scores, but the game State eleven fell apart in the final minutes and the Tide scored five more touchdowns in 18 minutes.

State scored first when Graham Bramlett intercepted a Gilmer pass at his 15 and ran 84 yards to the Tide one. Harper Davis drove it over and, on the first time this season, Alabama was behind, 7 to 0, at the end of the quarter.

Bama began a 77-yard drive immediately thereafter, however, with Gilmer making the touchdown on a 39-yard run, and Gilmer engineered another 52-yard scoring drive before the half ended, throwing three consecutive passes to take the ball to the one. Little Hugh Morrow drove over for the touchdown, but missed the extra point, and it was 13-7 Alabama.

The Tide was never headed after that. An 80-yard scoring march early in the third period made it 20-7, with Gilmer throwing a 30-yard pass to Morrow for the tally. State had one more shot left in the locker, however, as Davis ran the ensuing kickoff back 60 yards to Bama's 27, and two passes took it to the side 2. Bramlett drove over for the score.

Lewell then sewed the game up by running back the next kickoff for 53 yards and another Alabama touchdown.

Tackle Tom Whitley blocked a punt on the State 14, and Tew promptly made another marker, just after the fourth period opened. Three more touchdowns followed rapidly. Gilmer passing to Corky Corbett, a 30-yard gain, for one. Hal Self getting another on a quarter back sneak after a pass interception had set it up, and Gordon Pettus passing to Fred Grant for 16 yards and the final score.

Gilmer had one of his best days, completing 13 of 19 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns, and getting 56 yards rushing on 11 tries. He had one pass intercepted, however, was thrown for losses of 24 yards on two attempted passes.

This performance gave him a seasons record of 58 completions in 88 passes thrown for the season, for a total gain of 886 yards.

Bell Telephone Tolls 1 5 .167
News-Star 1 5 .167

High score honors in the past week's bowling series in the Women's All-Star League at Snappy Bowling Lanes went to Miss M. Moore, who rolled 457 for the series for McCain-Richards as her team shaded the Telephone Tolls 2 to 1.

McCain-Richards, sharing the league lead with United Gas and Silverstein's, also posted the highest team score for the series with 1,932. L. George led the Telephone Tolls with 409.

Edna Wade was high scorer in the News-Star series, with high-ranked United Gas, but the latter team triumphed, 2 to 1. Miss Wade posted a 457, Margaret Reese was high for United Gas with 418.

Silverstein's gained the tie for first place by sweeping the three-game series with the Telephone Locals, although Dixie Johnson, of the losers, was high pin-smasher of the series with 417. Margaret White was Silverstein's top bowler, with 383.

VOLS WIN EASILY OVER VANDERBILT

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 1.—(P)—With a freshman tailback supplying the fireworks, Tennessee turned on the power today to outclass Vanderbilt 45-0 in a game that might net the Vols an Orange Bowl bid.

A crowd of 15,000 gathered for the homecoming celebration saw Bobby Lund score four touchdowns and pass for two more as the Vols struck almost at will in every quarter.

Vanderbilt made only one serious threat when in the third period Doug Malsberger intercepted a pass on his five and went to the Vols 18 before eleventhman pulled him down. A touchdown down Vandy's hopes.

Tennessee scored early with Lund passing to Charles Wildman and Lund added another on an end sweep in the first period.

Lund struck twice again in the second quarter and again in the third. On the first play of the final period he passed to Max Partin, subbing for Wingback Casey Stephenson, for a 39-yard touchdown.

The Vols final tally came after Lund had clicked on two long passes to sub end Roy Cross, Fullback Mark Major, in for John Manning, went over from the seven.

U. S. C. WINS, GETS BID IN ROSE BOWL

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—(P)—The Southern California Trojans rode into the Rose Bowl today on a wave of power that qualified the battlers Bruins of U. C. L. A. 28-15, before the season's top crowd of 103,000 in Memorial Coliseum.

The Trojans, led by the rugged running Ted Tammchill and snappy pitching Jerry Bowman, thus closed their Pacific Coast Conference sched-

COLORFUL MATCH SET FOR STADIUM

Mormon 'Brother' And California 'Villain' Booked For Main Event

Promoter Gus Kallio last night announced he had signed Brother Jonathan, colorful bearded grappler from the Mormon country in Utah, and Hans "Roughhouse" Schnabel, Burbank, Calif., for the main event on the wrestling program at his Walnut street arena Thursday night.

Brother Jonathan, who claims the Texas version of the world's heavyweight championship, and Schnabel will be showing in the local arena for the first time, and Promoter Kallio last night declared he expected the match to be one of the most colorful of the autumn season.

I've splendid reports from the West and Midwest on the work of both Brother Jonathan and Schnabel," Kallio said, "and I feel proud to be able to get them together for a match here. I'm sure they'll prove themselves as high quality heavies and show the fans a lot of new stuff."

Brother Jonathan was described as a rather benevolent appearing giant with a well-cropped beard. His customary wearing apparel, when not in the ring, includes a "spick-and-span" black suit and a black "stove pipe" hat.

Brother Jonathan and Schnabel will wrestle over a 90-minute time limit route, two falls required to win.

The semi-final attraction will bring together the well known pair of villains, Ellis Bashara and Karl Davis. However, Bashara, once one of the most feared villains of the ring, showed no traces of his former villainy in a few matches here late in the summer, and it's likely the former Oklahoma A. and M. grappler will be favored over Davis this week.

OTT SEEKS NEW GIANTS TALENT

New York Skipper Wants Pitchers, Catchers And Way To Stop Cards

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—Manager Melvin Ott of the New York Giants was en route today to the minor leagues' meeting in Columbus, Ohio, with three prime worries:

1. Pitchers.
2. Catchers.
3. Cardinals.

He plans to do what he can about the first two problems at Columbus and at the subsequent major leagues' meeting in Chicago. His success largely will determine if he can do anything about the third vexation.

Discussing his 1946 prospects before boarding the train, Mel said his infield and outfield were "in pretty good shape." He listed Dick Bartell, Johnny Mize, Mickey Witck, Bud Blattner and Babe Young among fielders either recently released or expected of discharge from services.

"I'm looking for plenty of help ex-service men," he declared. "Greenberg did quite all right four years in the army, and he'd play any ball in that time."

Mel, who will start his 21st season with the Giants at the age of 37, he expected to play himself "as much as necessary." The knee was bothered him last season has improved and he is giving it plenty rest under doctors' orders.

As for pitchers, Mel said he had Hal Scumacher and Ken Trinkle, a probably Bob Carpenter and Lee Dave Kolso, from the services. "We'll need help for the pitchers and catchers. I'll do what I can to get any prospects I hear of at the meetings."

As for other teams, Mel murmured "Those Cardinals. Besides the team that almost won the pennant, they have about six infielders, eight outfielders and 18 pitchers from the service-men that played in the major before."

GEORGIA TROUNCES GEORGIA TECH, 33-0

Atlanta Back Charles Trappi Led Georgia to a 33 to 0 Victory Over Georgia Tech Here Today, Passing for Three Touchdowns and Punting for Another

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—Hell Back Charles Trappi led Georgia to a 33 to 0 victory over Georgia Tech here today, passing for three touchdowns and punting for another. A capacity crowd of 22,000 looked on.

Tech was never in the ball game and only on two occasions got past the Bulldogs' 20-yard line, both times in the third period. So completely did the Bulldogs dominate the playing that they punted only twice, both times in the opening period. Exceptional punting by Tech's Bobby Davis doubtless held the score down.

Trappi kept the crowd on edge with his brilliant punting and deadly passing. In the first period he threw a 70-yard scoring pass to Charlie Smith, tossed one to Red Mosley, for 45 yards and a score in the third period and four minutes later passed twice for 18 yards and another score.

In the latter drive, he hit John Donaldson with one for 36 yards and then John Hansen with a 42-yard pay-off pitch.

Late in the fourth period the Tech forces star drove over from the Tech one for the final touchdown extending a 25-yard drive.

Georgia jumped three extra points, one after Floyd Reed intercepted a pass in the second period to run 45 yards for a score, giving Georgia a 13-0 lead at halftime.

JONESBORO-HODGE IS WINNER OVER BOSSIER

Shreveport, La., Dec. 1.—(P)—The Jonesboro-Hodge Tigers exploded three second-half touchdowns to defeat the Bossier City Beavers, 26-0, here Friday night to win the north Louisiana class A high school football championship.

The Tigers scored fast late in the second period and then slammered over one third-quarter touchdown and two in the last for their victory, the second of the season over Bossier. Matthews and Tolar did the Jonesboro touchdowns, scoring and Chestnut kicked two points.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—(P)—Army's star-spangled array struck swiftly for three touchdowns in the opening period and defeated Navy, 32 to 13, as scheduled today, but not without being given a genuine dogfight by the Middies in the final grueling 45 minutes of their annual football struggle.

A crowd of 102,000 in Municipal Stadium, including President Truman, saw the Tars recover from the opening shocks of the Cadets' offensive and not only avert what had threatened to become a shambles, but play the vaunted West Pointers on virtually even terms for the greater part of the contest.

The difference in the final analysis—that which gave the golden-helmeted Cadets their 16th straight victory and their second national football championship—was the ripping tearing running of those two great All-America backs, Glenn Davis and Felix (Doc) Blanchard.

Blanchard reeled off three touchdowns and Davis the other two through a furiously fighting Navy defense that, for surprisingly long periods, checked and hamstringing what has been called one of the greatest attacks in gridiron history. Navy lost, but it put up a stout battle and steadfastly refused to fall apart before the famous Plainmen.

The Middies not only scored against Army's first team, but they did it twice and the second time they went right through the middle of the Cadets' hitherto impregnable line.

When his Joe Bartos, Navy fullback, plunged across from the one-foot line in the fourth period it was the first time in nine games this year that an opponent had gone through the Army's first team forwards to score.

But, having given the Sailors full credit, Army still was the magnificent team. It met its traditional rival, the team that was bound to play over its head, and it proved to be an ardent follower that their confidence had not been misplaced. The Cadets struck like shafts of lightning to score their touchdowns, and they won.

Although Army held a safe 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and drove arrogantly 56 yards to a touchdown after receiving the opening kick-off, it was destined to become a much better game than that, as the statistics show.

When it all was over Army had notched only 10 first downs to Navy's 11. By all means, rushing and passing, the champions piled up 266 yards against Navy's very respectable 226. The Middies, who promised to make it a struggle, gained 106 yards through the air to Army's 7. The Cadets, however, attempted only six passes.

A chill breeze had the spectators huddled in their blankets when the two captains, Army's Johnny Green and Navy's Dick Duden, called the flip at midfield. Green won, and for a change Army chose to receive the flip at midfield. Green won, and for a change Army chose to receive the flip at midfield.

Coach Com. Oscar Hagberg of the Navy had proved his point—Army couldn't call its shots, could not score in two plays.

But the Cadets did score in seven plays. Tucker, the invalid, ripped for 13, and Davis, on lateral from Tucker, picked up 19, electrifying the great crowd with his dippy-doo running. Finally, with the ball on the one-yard mark, Blanchard plummeted over. That was in three minutes and 28 seconds, quite up to the Army tradition.

Not much later, but after Navy had run for a couple of first downs, the boys from the plains struck again.

This time they started from Navy's 42. On the first play the still-ailing Tucker banged through the Navy center for 25, and on the next play Blanchard, all 205 pounds of him, broke away and ran 17 for the score.

Davis, who up to this time had been watching his illustrious teammates smoke, then decided to take a hand. With the ball reposing on Navy's 43-yard line, the result of a short kick by Navy's Bruce Smith, little scatterfoot took off around the Middies' right end, stopped abruptly at the sideline, and sprinted for a score. With Dick Walterhouse booting his second extra point in three attempts, that made it 30 to 0 and there were visions of a bad score against Navy—perhaps in the sixth.

That was why the crowd including possibly the president, got such a kick out of the Middies' come-back. Suddenly it turned into a football game.

Army, instead of going on to win by whatever score it chose as Coach Earl Blaik's charges had in other games this year, found itself mixed up in a contest.

The boys from Annapolis more or less took over the second period, handcuffing Davis and Blanchard, and right at the last they scored on a spectacular play.

With only 15 seconds remaining, and with the ball on Navy's 38, Bruce Smith, the Miami, Fla., boy, fell way back and threw a pass in the general direction of Clyde Scott, the Smack-over, Ark., product.

It was a prodigious heave, fully 40 yards, and Scott gathered it in on Army's 35-yard line, just over Davis' finger tips. He lit out for the goal line, with Davis in pursuit, and just made it. Davis dived and hit him and knocked him down just as he crossed the last line. Jack Currence kicked the point to make it Army, 20-7.

Early in the third period Blanchard intercepted a short pass by Smith, who was passing in his own territory, and barged 45 yards to Army's fourth score, weaving his way past a half-dozen would-be tacklers. For the remainder of that quarter, the Cadets were deep in their own territory and doing on good whatever, though Army was leading, 26-7.

The final period was in its infancy when Davis, trying to pass and rushed by the Middle line-men, got off a throw he hoped would hit a friendly face. Instead, the ever-present Bruce Smith intercepted it and ran it to Army's 26, and from there the Tars banged to their second score—the first through the Army line.

Bill Barron rocketed through Army's stalwarts to the 15, carrying a couple of them with him. Joe Bartos busted the cadet middle for more yards and planted the ball on the three, and then he plunged it on a cross. That was the one that proved it was possible to score against the Army's firsts.

PELLONE, GIOVANELLI REMATCHED FOR FIGHT

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(P)—Youthful Lightweight Tony Pellone of New York and Patsy Giovannelli of Brooklyn, who fought a sizzling 10-rounder at St. Nick's arena last night with the decision going to Pellone, were rematched immediately for a repeat performance at Madison Square Garden Monday, Dec. 17.

Giovannelli, making his first comeback effort since his release from the army, had a slight edge in the first few rounds but tired to lose a close decision.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 1.—(P)—Unbeaten Alabama gave an amazing demonstration of speed, power and passing here today to run up an overwhelming 55 to 13 Homecoming Day victory over a highly regarded Mississippi State eleven.

Today's win, before 22,000 fans, ended another unbeaten regular season for the Rose Bowl bound Crimson Tide.

Harry Gilmer's passing and running were almost entirely responsible for the first three Alabama scores, but the game State eleven fell apart in the final minutes and the Tide scored five more touchdowns in 18 minutes.

State scored first when Graham Bramlett intercepted a Gilmer pass in his 15 and ran 84 yards to the Tide one. Harper Davis drove it over and, for the first time this season, Alabama was behind, 7 to 0, at the end of the quarter.

Bama began a 77-yard drive immediately thereafter, however, with Gilmer making the touchdown on a 39-yard run, and Gilmer engineered another 32-yard scoring drive before the half ended, throwing three consecutive passes to take the ball to the one. Little Hugh Morrow drove over for the touchdown, but missed the extra point, and it was 13-7 Alabama.

The Tide was never headed after that. An 80-yard scoring March early in the third period made it 20-7, with Gilmer throwing a 30-yard pass to Morrow for the tally. State had one more shot left in the locker, however, as Davis ran the ensuing kickoff back 60 yards to Bama's 27, and two passes took it to the side 2. Bramlett drove over for the score.

Lowell then sewed the game up by running back the next kickoff for 85 yards and another Alabama touchdown.

Tackle Tom Whitley blocked a punt on the State 14, and Tew promptly made another marker, just after the fourth period opened. Three more touchdowns followed rapidly, Gilmer passing to Corky Corbett, a 30-yard gain, for one; Hal Self getting another on a quarter back sneak after a pass interception had set it up, and Gordon Pettus passing to Fred Grant for 16 yards and the final score.

Gilmer had one of his best days, completing 13 of 19 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns, and getting 96 yards rushing on 11 tries. He had one pass intercepted, however, was thrown for losses of 24 yards on two attempted passes.

This performance gave him a seasons record of 38 completions in 88 passes thrown for the season, for a total gain of 886 yards.

GEORGIA TROUNCES GEORGIA TECH, 33-0

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—Half Back Charles Trippi led Georgia to a 33 to 0 victory over Georgia Tech here today, passing for three touchdowns and plunging for another. A capacity crowd of 32,000 looked on.

Tech was never in the ball game and only on two occasions got past the Bulldogs' 30-yard line, both times in the third period. So completely did the Bulldogs dominate the playing that they punted only twice, both times in the opening period. Exceptional punting by Tech's Bobby Davis doubtlessly held the score down.

Trippi kept the crowd on edge with his brilliant running and deadly passing. In the first period he threw a 70-yard scoring pass to Charlie Smith, tossed one to Reid Moseley for 68 yards and a score in the third period and four minutes later passed twice for 78 yards and another score.

In the latter drive, he hit John Donaldson with one for 35 yards and then John Rauch with a 42-yard pay-off pitch.

Late in the fourth period, the ex-air forces star drove over from the Tech one for the final touchdown ending a 25-yard drive.

George Jernigan kicked three extra points, one after Floyd Reid intercepted a pass in the second period to run 45 yards for a score, giving Georgia a 13-0 lead at halftime.

BOWLING

WOMEN'S ALL-STAR LEAGUE

Bell Telephone Tolls	1	5	.167
News-Star	1	5	.167

High score honors in the past week's bowling series in the Women's All-Star League at Snappy Bowling Lanes went to Miss M. Moore, who rolled 437 for the series for McCaun-Richards as her team shaded the Telephone Tolls, 2 to 1.

McCaun-Richards, sharing the league lead with United Gas and Silverstein's, also posted the highest team score for the series with 1,332. L. George led the Telephone Tolls with 409.

Edna Wade was high scorer in the News-Star series, with high-ranked United Gas, but the latter team triumphed, 2 to 1. Miss Wade posted a 437. Margaret Reese was high for United Gas with 418.

Silverstein's gained the tie for first place by sweeping the three-game series with the Telephone Locals, although Dixie Johnson, of the losers, was high pin-scraper of the series with 417. Margaret White was Silverstein's top bowler, with 383.

VOLS WIN EASILY OVER VANDERBILT

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 1.—(P)—With a freshman tailback supplying the fireworks, Tennessee turned on the power today to outclass Vanderbilt 45-0 in a game that might net the Vols an Orange Bowl bid.

A crowd of 15,000 gathered for the homecoming celebration saw Bobby Lund score four touchdowns and pass for two more as the Vols struck almost at will in every quarter.

Vanderbilt made only one serious threat when in the third period Doug Malsberger intercepted a pass on his five and went to the Vols 18 before Stephenson pulled him down. A touchdown down Vandy's hopes.

Tennessee scored early with Lund passing to Charles Wildman and Lund added another on an end sweep in the first period.

Lund struck twice again in the second quarter and again in the third. On the first play of the final period he passed to Max Partin, subbing for Wingback Casey Stephenson, for a 59-yard touchdown.

The Vols final tally came after Lund had clicked on two long passes to sub end Roy Cross. Fullback Mark Major, in for John Manning, went over from the seven.

U. S. C. WINS, GETS BID IN ROSE BOWL

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—(P)—The Southern California Trojans rode into the Rose Bowl today on a wave of power that engulfed the battling Bruins of U. C. L. A. 26-15, before the season's top crowd of 103,000 in Memorial Coliseum.

The Trojans, led by the rugged running Ted Tannehill and sharp pitching Jerry Bowman, thus closed their Pacific Coast Conference schedule with five wins against one defeat, earning the undisputed lead and the bid, expected tonight, to represent the West against Alabama's Crimson Tide, Jan. 1.

Flashing the savage strength of previous U. S. C. powerhouses, the Trojans ran up a 19-0 lead in the first half, more than enough to win. The fighting Bruins came back to count 15 points in the last half, but the issue was never seriously in doubt.

Tannehill, 185 pound right halfback, scored twice on runs of 33 and 24 yards. Bowman, heretofore regarded as a second stringer quarterback, had a throwing hand in three of the scores.

GREAT LAKES WHIPS NOTRE DAME, 39 TO 7

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Dec. 1.—(P)—Great Lakes, surprising Blue Jackets, who two years ago knocked Notre Dame out of a national championship by scoring in the closing seconds of their game, today wrote a fitting finish to big time football in Ross Field by crushing the Irish under a last period barrage of touchdowns, 39 to 7.

Four times the Jackets crossed the Notre Dame goal line in the last quarter, after they had come from behind to take a 13-7 lead in the second period.

In smothering the Irish before a crowd of 22,000 sailors, the Blue Jackets outdid their "big brothers" from the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Navy had to settle for a disputed 6-6 tie with Notre Dame, a team beaten only by Army this season. The Irish were heavily favored to defeat Great Lakes, despite the fact that the Jackets had won their last five games after losing three and tying one in their first four this season.

JONESBORO-HODGE IS WINNER OVER BOSSIER

SHREVEPORT, La., Dec. 1.—(P)—The Jonesboro-Hodge Tigers exploded three second-half touchdowns to defeat the Bossier City Bearcats, 26-0, here Friday night to win the north Louisiana class A high school football championship.

The Tigers scored first late in the second period and then slammed over one third quarter touchdown and two in the last for their victory, the second of the season over Bossier. Matthews and Tolar did the Jonesboro touchdown scoring and Chestnut kicked two points.

COLORFUL MATCH SET FOR STADIUM

Mormon 'Brother' And California 'Villain' Booked For Main Event

Promoter Gus Kallio last night announced he had signed Brother Jonathan, colorful bearded grappler from the Mormon country in Utah, and Hans "Roughhouse" Schnabel, Burbank, Calif., for the main event on the wrestling program at his Walnut street arena Thursday night.

Brother Jonathan, who claims the Texas version of the world's heavyweight championship, and Schnabel will be showing in the local arena for the first time, and Promoter Kallio last night declared he expected the match to be one of the most colorful of the autumn season.

"I've splendid reports from the West and Midwest on the work of both Brother Jonathan and Schnabel," Kallio said, "and I feel proud to be able to get them together for a match here. I'm sure they'll prove themselves as high quality heavies and show the fans a lot of new stuff."

Brother Jonathan was described as a rather benevolent appearing giant with a well-cropped beard. His customary wearing apparel, when not in the ring, includes a "spick-and-span" black suit and a black "stove pipe" hat.

Brother Jonathan and Schnabel will wrestle over a 30-minute time limit route, two falls required to win.

The semi-final attraction will bring together that well known pair of villains, Ellis Bashara and Karl Davis. However, Bashara, once one of the most feared villains of the ring, showed no traces of his former villainy in a few matches here late in the summer, and it's likely the former Oklahoma A. and M. grappler will be favored over Davis this week.

PREP FOES SELECTED

BLOXI, Miss., Dec. 1.—(P)—St. James Catholic High School football team of Port Arthur, Tex., has been selected to play the Gulf Coast Military Academy Cadets in the annual Shrimp Bowl game at Bloxi Dec. 6.

St. James won eight games, lost two and tied two in its 1945 season.

OTT SEEKS NEW GIANTS TALENT

New York Skipper Wants Pitchers, Catchers And Way To Stop Cards

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—Manager Melvin Ott of the New York Giants was en route today to the minor leagues' meeting in Columbus, Ohio, with three prime worries:

1. Pitchers.
2. Catchers.
3. Cardinals.

He plans to do what he can about the first two problems at Columbus and at the subsequent major leagues' meeting in Chicago. His success largely will determine if he can do anything about the third vexation.

Discussing his 1946 prospects before boarding the train, Mel said his infield and outfield were "in pretty good shape." He listed Dick Bartell, Johnny Mize, Mickey Witck, Bud

Blattner and Babe Young among the fielders either recently released or in expectation of discharge from services.

In the outfield he hopes for Willard Pike, Willard Marshall Sid Gordon to his 1945 availability. "I'm looking for plenty of help," Greenberg did quite all right four years in the army, and he'd play any ball in that time."

Mel, who will start his 21st season with the Giants at the age of 37, he expected to play himself "as long as necessary." The knee which bothered him last season, has proved and he is giving it plenty rest under doctors' orders.

As for pitchers, Mel said he had Hal Schumacher and Ken Trinkle, a probably Bob Carpenter and Lefty Kellum, from the services. "We'll need help for the pitchers and catchers. I'll do what I can to get any prospects I hear of at the meetings."

As for other teams, Mel murmured: "The Cardinals. Besides the team that almost won the pennant, they'll have about six infielders, eight outfielders and 18 pitchers from the service—men that played in the major before."

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The Louisiana State University Tigers romped to a 33-0 victory over Tulane in the annual service game at Philadelphia Dec. 1. The game was the first of the season for the Tigers, who were undefeated in the previous season. The game was a rout, with State dominating from the start. The Tigers scored 33 points, while Tulane was held scoreless. The game was played in front of a crowd of 55,000 spectators. The game was marked by several fights, including one between State's Green Wave and Tulane's Blue Devils. The game was a display of the power of the Louisiana State University football team.

Gene Knight started it off in the first period by scooting 22 yards off tackle, then circling end for 11 yards and the first touchdown. Tulane had things under control for the remainder of the period and the early part of the second quarter. Then State went all the way, 66 yards, with Don Sandifer skirting end for the final nine. Y. A. Tittle's 18-yard pass to Willard Landry accounted for touchdown number three. Taking the third period kickoff L. S. U. marched 60 yards to pay dirt. Sandifer went around end for the last 21. Tittle again connected to Landry on a 18-yard pass play to wind up a 61-yard push. Tittle place-kicked the three extra points. The Tigers came within a foot of scoring again in the last two minutes of play, but the Tulane line held and the ball went over.

The heads of the student bodies at the two universities met in the center of the field after the game and the traditional "L. S. U." a piece of cloth made up of L. S. U. and Tulane colors, was presented to the winners. Jack Counce and Al Stolen of Tulane handed the "Rag" over to Clyde Lindsey and Earl Tullos, who represented the Tigers. The Tigers were perched 132 yards to 45 for Tulane. L. S. U. made 16 first downs to 12 for Tulane, and even 250 yards running against 116. The Tigers completed 11 of 13 passes for 126 yards, while the Greenies made good on eight of 22 aerial attempts for 38 yards. Tiger third stringers predominated in the fourth period but Coach Bernie Moore ran in his 14 squad when it looked like L. S. U. would score again. However, the Greenie line held on their one foot line and the ball went over. Tulane kicked out of danger and the game ended shortly afterwards.

BLANCHARD SCORES FIRST TOUCHDOWN FOR ARMY

Fullback Felix (Doc) Blanchard (arrow) goes through Navy's line for Army's first touchdown in the annual service game at Philadelphia Dec. 1. SELMAN QUINTET WINS FIRST TILT

Cyclones Have Little Trouble Romping Over Bastrop Team, 87-20

Meeting the Bastrop Athletic Club in their first home game of the 1945-46 basketball season, Friday night the Selman Field quintet encountered no difficulty in defeating their opponents, 87 to 20, at the Selman Field gymnasium. Despite the fact that he had lost several capable players, Coach Dick Washburn still put out a well-experienced group sporting plenty of high school and college stars.

A display of what was to come occurred in the first quarter when the Cyclones ran up 32 points to their opponents' two. High center in that quarter for the local team was Carlson while Cooke made the lone tally for the Bastrop five. At the half the score stood at 44 for the Selman team and four for the Bastrop club.

At the start of the second half Coach Washburn began to use every member of the team as it rapidly substituted one player for another. Scoring points freely at will, the Cyclones scored 47 points in the final period to finish the contest.

The lineup:

Selman	PT	10	0	0

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—The Louisiana State University Tigers romped to a 33-0 victory over Tulane in the annual Orange Bowl game today. The Tigers, led by quarterback Gene Knight, who was named the game's most valuable player, dominated the game from the start. Tulane's defense was completely overwhelmed by the Tigers' offense, which scored 13 touchdowns. The game was played in front of a record crowd of 55,000 fans at the Tulane stadium. The game was marked by several fights between players from both teams, adding to the excitement of the event.

The Tigers were perfect in the first half, scoring 16 points. In the second half, they added 17 more points to their lead. Tulane's only points came from a field goal in the third quarter. The game was a display of the Tigers' offensive power, which has been a key factor in their success this season. Coach Bernie Moore praised his team's performance and the support of the fans. The game was a fitting end to the season for both teams, with the Tigers finishing as the national champion.

William Watkins, Tulane end, recovered a fumble by Sandifer in the second quarter to start another wave of offense. The Tigers managed to get to the L. S. U. 40 but the Tiger line held and Tittle punted the Bengals out of danger. It was the 43rd meeting of the teams and according to L. S. U. records the results gave the Tigers 22 victories against 17 defeats with four ties. The Wave claims 18 victories and admits only 21 defeats. The difference arises over the 1931 game which Tulane won 23 to 0 but defaulted because a player had been proved ineligible. The lineups:

SELMAN QUINTET WINS FIRST TILT

Cyclones Have Little Trouble Romping Over Bastrop Team, 87-20

Meeting the Bastrop Athletic Club in their first home game of the 1945-46 basketball season Friday night the Selman Field quintet encountered no difficulty in defeating their opponents, 87 to 20, at the Selman Field gymnasium. Despite the fact that he had lost several capable players, Coach Dick Washburn still put out a well experienced group sporting plenty of high school and college stars.

A display of what was to come occurred in the first quarter when the Cyclones ran up 32 points to their opponent's two. High scorer in that quarter for the local team was Carlson, while Cooke made the lone tally for the Bastrop five. At the half the score stood at 44 for the Selman team and four for the Bastrop club.

At the start of the second half Coach Washburn began to use every member of the team as rapidly substituted one player for another. Scoring practically at will they ran the third quarter score up to 63-13, and ran wild in the final period to finish the contest.

ORANGE BOWL TO PICK OPPONENTS ON MONDAY

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—The Orange Bowl will not pick its Southern football team before Monday, and the entire sponsoring committee will make the choice.

That was the statement today of Will Preston, chairman of the Orange Bowl schedule committee, who attended the Louisiana State-Tulane game here.

"No matter what the result of Southeastern Conference games today," Preston said, "the Orange Bowl's Southern team will not be named until the entire Orange Bowl committee meets Monday, and the announcement may be made later than that."

The University of Miami, which has enjoyed a successful season, has been mentioned as a possible choice.

Southeastern Conference teams under consideration are said to be Louisiana State, Georgia and Tennessee.

Van C. Kussow, last year's Orange Bowl president, also attended the Tulane game.

YALE ROLLS UP 28-0 SCORE OVER HARVARD

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 1.—(P)—Yale's strong line and Art Fitzgerald made the Harvard football team wish it had remained on an informal basis today.

The Elis rolled up a 28-0 score in the 62nd meeting of these big three rivals and their first since 1942 and outplayed the Crimson so completely that it hardly looked like a contest to the 25,000 or so die-hard fans who braved cold weather and snowy stands to see the traditional game.

NORTH CAROLINA WINS

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Dec. 1.—(P)—North Carolina's Tar Heels, showing plenty of late season power and fitness, handed Virginia its second setback in two seasons here today, scoring in three periods to win a 27-13 football victory. The triumph broke a 23 to 23 deadlock in the 50-year football feud between the two schools.

INACTIVE CHAMPS TO BE PENALIZED

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(P)—The National Boxing Association plans to clamp down on all champions who have not defended their titles during the last six months, President Abe J. Green, of Paterson, N. J., said today.

At the first session of a two-day meeting, the N. B. A. also decided to review the status of all returned service men boxers, including champions and leading contenders whose positions were frozen while they were in the service.

While Green declined to mention any titleholder by name, he declared that a list of the inactive champions and the association's decisions concerning them would be made public tomorrow.

Green also announced that as a result of the tremendous upsurge in boxing interest, a special committee has been appointed to confer with state board of education heads throughout the nation in an effort to have boxing classes included in the schools' physical education programs.

The officers also voted to hold its annual convention, discontinued during the war, some time next September at a city undecided upon as yet. A number of bids are under consideration.

Among those attending, besides Green, was Treasurer Harry J. Landry, Friar's Point, Miss.

WAKE FOREST RALLIES TO BEAT CLEMSON, 13-6

CLEMSON, S. C., Dec. 1.—(P)—Wake Forest's Deacons came from behind to crowd over two second half touchdowns and a 13 to 6 football victory over Clemson here this afternoon.

The loss, first Southern Conference defeat of the season for the Tigers, spoiled homecoming day for a partisan crowd of 15,000.

Clemson shot into an early lead, scoring before the game was five minutes old. But Butler's 57-yard quick kick to the Deacons' 2-yard line set up the score. After a Wake Forest punt, Butler scored around end without being touched on an 11-yard run.

BASEBALL MINOR LEAGUE TO MEET

Lower Loops Plan To Return To Full-Scale Operation Next Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 1.—(P)—Minor league baseball, which has been sputtering along on a cylinder and a half since Pearl Harbor, will try next week to get its working parts in order for full scale operation next summer.

Officially known as the 44th annual convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the minors), the regular business sessions here won't open until Wednesday. But by that time, leagues which have operated during the war will have their 1946 plans in order. A number of leagues, which have been inoperative since 1941, also are expected to be ready to go.

At least 10 leagues hold meetings prior to the actual start of the convention. One, the American Association, is faced with the task of naming a new president to succeed George M. Trautman, who resigned to become vice-president of the Detroit Tigers.

The association directors meet tomorrow and it appears that the No. 1 prospect to succeed Trautman is Roy Hamey, president of the Kansas City Blues.

There is no indication, however, the association directors will elect on Sunday.

Main items on the convention program are the proposals of the suspended leagues to resume operation and an anticipated scrap over a request by the American Association, the International League and the Pacific Coast League to be placed in a new class AAA.

At present they have a class AA rating and the Southern Association already has decided to advance from class A-1 to the AA group.

Pre-convention dope says the Southern Association is prepared to make a vigorous fight against creating a new class for the three big minors. If the new class were created, it would leave the Southern Association in a group by itself and still subject to draft of its players by the other three loops.

Other major amendments proposed to the minor league baseball law include a renewal by the Pacific Coast League of its demand for an increase in the price paid by the major leagues for drafted players and a proposal that all suspended leagues be required to resume operations within 90 days after Dec. 1, 1946, or forfeit their membership and territorial protection rights.

MATTHEW'S GIRLS PLAN CAGE OPENER

The starting lineup for the girls' basketball team of St. Matthew's Parochial School was announced yesterday by Miss Melba Meziel, coach, whose local sextet opens its season Tuesday against the Bastrop High School girls.

The first team was listed by Miss Meziel as Janet Voorhees, Ellen Browne and Annette Lacara, forwards; and Catherine Fury, Cecile Danna and Monica Ann Ritter, guards.

The No. 2 lineup is: Joyce Danna, Mary Ann Savana and Althea Burkett, forwards; and Anna Tornatore, Mary Margaret Comrato and Patricia Corrente, guards.

Girls teams in this area with open dates on their cage schedules through the months of January, February and March, are requested to communicate with Miss Meziel at St. Matthew's here for the slating of dates with the local sextet. Bastrop meets the locals in a second game December 12.

RED SHIELD SETS CAGE SCHEDULES

Senior And Junior Basketball Leagues Get Under Way This Week

Basketball activity in the Red Shield Senior and Junior Leagues gets underway this week with the Seniors opening play tomorrow night in the Ouachita Parish High School gymnasium, and the Juniors swinging into action Tuesday night at Louisiana Training Institute.

Each league will operate this year with six teams, it was announced last night by Captain Hesketh of the Salvation Army, sponsor of Red Shield activity.

Members of the Senior loop are the First Baptists of West Monroe, Exchange Club, Independents, First Methodist of Monroe, Deacons, and Red Shield Club. In the opening games tomorrow the Baptists oppose the Exchange Club, the Independents meet the Methodists, and the Deacons and Red Shield tangle. The first game starts at 8:30 o'clock, the second at 9:30 and the third at 8:30.

Among the Junior League are St. Matthew's, Spatafora, Pharmacy, Recreation Center, Louisiana Training Institute, Ransom, and Red Shield Club. St. Matthew's and Spatafora open hostilities Tuesday at 6 p. m. Recreation Center and L. T. I. tangle at 8:45, and Ransom meets Red Shield at 7:30.

Play in the Senior circuit will be concluded February 21, and the Juniors finish regular scheduled play February 19. The Juniors will play once weekly, and the Seniors will be in action twice each week.

The first round schedule for the Seniors was announced as follows:

Tomorrow: Baptists vs. Exchange Club, Independents vs. Methodists, Deacons vs. Red Shield.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—How would you like to see Eastern backfield in the East-West game New Year's day composed of Army's Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard and Notre Dame's Frank Daney and Elmer Angstrom? ... There's a precedent for Army participation ... In 1925 Ed Garbisch and Guy Farwick of Army and Bill Ingram of Navy all played for the East ... And Bill Jones, Army's athletic boss, used to coach in the Shrine game. ... One sure thing, that quartet would drive Coach Andy (double wing) Kerr to take up the "T" formation ... Ray (Scooter) Seussel, the speedy back who took a Marine-directed tour from the U. of Connecticut to Yale to Tientsin, China, hopes to be back in action in the Yale Bowl next fall ...

Spelling Bee

If there's a football player anywhere who has had more trouble getting his name spelled right (even in home town papers) than Utah State's Ray Hooplians, it would like to know about it. ... That third "T" always gets the sports scribes who never studied Hawaiian ... F. S. No guarantee that it's spelled right here, either.

Sportspourri

Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler, who came east to attend the Army-Navy game with Gen. James D. Devers, expects to move into his new Cincinnati office by Dec. 15. ... At that time Special Assistant Muddy Ruel, who has just been learning his job so far, will go on the payroll. ... The National Boxing Association, which hasn't held a convention since the war started, is holding its annual executive meeting this weekend. ... Cleveland fans will present Riley Matheson, the Rams' veteran guard, with a station wagon between the halves of tomorrow's game with the Yanks. ... Probably the first thing Riley will do is knock the top off the thing so he can use it to haul hay on his New Mexico ranch. ... Long Island U. which helps open the Madison Square Garden basketball season against Valparaiso next week, holds the longest Garden record of 56 wins and 23 losses. It's 53-21 against out-of-town teams.

Did you know that one Navy back has been riding the bench all season because he's too good? ... Bill Bartlett, Lorain, O. Plebe, can't quite make the grade as much as much of his prospects that they won't let him use up a year's eligibility as a sub. ... Ex-heavyweight Champ Jack Sharkey is telling pals that he now has no connection with the Sharkey A. A. in Boston. It's being run by his old manager, Johnny Buckley. ... The grid giants have claimed Cotton Price and Jim Thompson, released by Detroit, but won't try to use them until next season. It's too late to help Steve Owen's squad this year.

HI-TY WINS HANDICAP AT FAIR GROUNDS OVAL

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—Hi-Ty, almost overlooked in the betting, won the $2,000 added Lake Providence Handicap at the Fair Grounds today and paid $66.60 for $2 in the mutuels.

Hi-Ty, owned by Louis de Latour, of New Orleans, picked up $1,360 for the winner's end, and rewarded his owner for his second straight handicap victory at the winter meet. De Latour scored with Moretto in the Cesscent City handicap a week ago.

The son of Half Strung took command at the far turn and held off a fast finish by Espino Gold to win by a half length.

Hi-Ty paid $30.40 to place and $17.40 to show. Espino Gold paid $9.00 and $3.20. Valinda Lamar, winner of the Thanksgiving Handicap, came in third and paid $5.40. The running time was 1:12 3/5.

The winner was handled by Jockey C. Leblanc. The race was witnessed by about 5,000 spectators.

S. M. U. TRIMS T. C. U. BY 34 TO 0 MARGIN

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 1.—(P)—Southern Methodist turned Freshman Paul Page loose on Texas Christian today and the mid-season graduate from the second team dashed 51, 68 and 55 yards for touchdowns to spark the Mustangs to a 34-0 victory.

Baylor won over Rice 17-14 at Houston today and this, together with S. M. U.'s crushing defeat of T. C. U. gave the Methodists second place in the Southwest Conference. Texas won the championship with five victories against one loss.

AAA COMMITTEEMEN TO BE SELECTED

FERRISDAY, La.—Concordia parish farmers will take time out from seasonal work in the second week of December to elect AAA community and county committeemen for the coming year.

Three committeemen and two alternates, as well as a delegate to the county convention, will be chosen in each of the parish's four farming communities. The delegates will later elect the three-man committee which will administer AAA activities within the parish.

Chairman George Murray of the parish AAA said that dates, hours and places for holding the annual election are now being determined. Announcement will be made within the next few days, he stated. In the parish, he added, 700 farmers are eligible to vote on committeemen this year. Eligible farmers are those who participate in the 1945 agricultural conservation program. The parish AAA chairman is making a strong appeal for full participation of all farmers of the parish. He said: "Solution of the post-war problems ahead of us is a vital concern to every farmer, and all should vote."

If all the drive shafts in the battleship U. S. S. Missouri were placed together, their length would total one fifth of a mile. The ship can generate enough electricity to handle the domestic and industrial load of a city of 120,000 population.

PROTEIN ADDED BY USE OF NUTS

When you add nuts in any quantity to your meals you are adding a substantial contribution of both fat and protein, says Mrs. Mildred G. Swift, associate home demonstration agent. And some nuts, particularly the peanut, contain iron and calcium in significant amounts.

"The flavors of nuts are vastly different," the agent asserts. "Black walnuts have a rich, dominant flavor that penetrates cookies or candy to the exclusion of most other flavors. English walnuts have a lighter, daintier quality ... they're dryer nuts with a crisp quality. Pecans have a definite flavor personality which many people consider particularly delicious in hot breads. When it comes to the delicate flavor of almonds, opinions differ concerning the best spot on the menu to serve them. But most connoisseurs recommend the almond for fruit dishes ... either in salads or fruit desserts."

Since nuts are rolling your way, dust off the nut bowl, and polish the nut cracker. Plan to enjoy these treats while they're plentiful. Pecans contain as much as 70 per cent fat and protein. The other nuts are about half fat, or a little more.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—(P)—Rye futures started strong today but the May delivery dipped rather sharply in late trade on a bearish interpretation of new OPA regulations in connection with rye price ceilings which become effective next June 1.

Wheat was strong most of the time, with buying influence by a boost of 1 1/2 cents a bushel in the government subsidy to millers for wheat ground.

RETURNED VETERAN GETS BOWL TICKETS

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—Lt. Joseph Holcombe, 29, of Knoxville, Tenn., strode into the Sugar Bowl office here yesterday, days after the sellout, and came out with four tickets to the New Year's day football game.

"I just asked, 'Have you got my tickets,' and everyone ran around and shook hands," said the handsome paratrooper.

He sent $50 for four tickets from Berlin, after spending 30 months overseas, and got the tickets and $30 change.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(P)—Stocks: Higher; specialties strong. Bonds: Steady; selected calls improve. Cotton: Mixed; commission house selling.

CHICAGO—Wheat: Unchanged to 1/8 up; mill buying. Corn: Unchanged at ceilings. Rye: 2 1/4 cents down to 1/2 up, bearish interpretation of ceiling regulations. Hogs: Reported weak. Cattle: Reported weak.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(P)—The stock market reached for a 14-year average peak today with leaders up fractions to a point or more and assorted strong specialties enjoying much wider jumps.

Still on the side of bullish contingents were split-ups, actual and rumored, pleasing dividends, earnings and the pressure of huge amounts of idle cash seeking refuge from inflation.

Transfers for the two hours topped 1,000,000 shares.

Eastern Air Lines again was a star performer, climbing around 10 points. Bonds were selectively higher and commodities narrow.

MARYLAND WINS FROM SOUTH CAROLINA, 19-13

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 1.—(P)—A smashing fourth period South Carolina offensive for two touchdowns failed to overtake the Maryland Old Liners' three touchdown lead here today as Maryland chalked up its third Southern Conference victory 19-13.

The Old Liners rolled over the Gamecocks in the second period with two quick touchdowns and opened the second half with another before South Carolina was able to shake loose its speedy backs in the final stanza.

South Carolina found its ground game completely throttled for three periods, then opened up to net 74 yards from scrimmage, compared with Maryland's 238 yards.

RED SHIELD SETS CAGE SCHEDULES

Senior And Junior Basketball Leagues Get Under Way This Week

Basketball activity in the Red Shield Senior and Junior Leagues gets underway this week with the Senior league opening play tomorrow night in the Cadeaux Parish High School gymnasium, and the Juniors swinging into action Tuesday night at Louisiana Training Institute.

Each league will operate this year with six teams, it was announced last night by Captain Hesketh of the Salvation Army, sponsor of Red Shield activity.

Members of the Senior loop are the First Baptists of West Monroe, Exchange Club, Independents, First Methodists of Monroe, Deacons, and Red Shield Club. In the opening games tomorrow the Baptists oppose the Exchange Club, the Independents meet the Methodists, and the Deacons and Red Shield tangle. The Senior league starts at 8:30 o'clock, the second at 7:30 and the third at 8:30.

Forming the Junior League are St. Matthew's, Spatafora Pharmacy, Recreation Center, Louisiana Training Institute, Ransom, and Red Shield Club. St. Matthew's and Spatafora open hostilities Tuesday at 8 p. m. Recreation Center and L. T. I. tangle at 8:30, and Ransom meets Red Shield at 9:30.

Play in the Senior circuit will be concluded February 21, and the Juniors finish regular scheduled play February 19. The Juniors will play once weekly, and the Seniors will be in action twice each week.

The first round schedule for the Seniors was announced as follows:

Tomorrow: Baptists vs. Exchange Club, Independents vs. Methodists, Deacons vs. Red Shield.

Dec. 6: Exchange Club vs. Independents, Methodists vs. Deacons, Red Shield vs. Baptists.

Dec. 10: Deacons vs. Baptists, Independents vs. Red Shield, Methodists vs. Exchange Club.

Dec. 13: Red Shield vs. Exchange Club, Deacons vs. Independents, Methodists vs. Baptists.

Dec. 17: Deacons vs. Exchange Club, Independents vs. Baptists, Methodists vs. Red Shield.

The first round schedule for the Juniors is:

Tuesday: St. Matthew's vs. Spatafora, Recreation Center vs. L. T. I., Ransom vs. Red Shield.

Dec. 11: Spatafora vs. Recreation Center, L. T. I. vs. Ransom, Red Shield vs. St. Matthew's.

Dec. 18: Recreation Center vs. Red Shield, L. T. I. vs. Spatafora, Ransom vs. St. Matthew's.

Jan. 8: Red Shield vs. Spatafora, L. T. I. vs. St. Matthew's, Ransom vs. Recreation Center.

Jan. 15: Spatafora vs. Ransom, L. T. I. vs. Red Shield, Recreation Center vs. St. Matthew's.

S. M. U. AND BAYLOR WIN IN SOUTHWEST

(By Associated Press)

Southern Methodist University had a snug second-place berth in the Southwest Conference football final standings today, result of the Ponies' powerful 34-0 victory over Texas Christian and Baylor's 17-14 upset over Rice Institute.

Tied for third place were Texas A. and M. and Rice and T. C. U. Baylor was fourth and Arkansas was alone in the cellar.

The University of Texas had clinched the title Thursday by defeating A. & M.

Paul Page, of S. M. U., ran wild against the Horned Frogs, dashing 51, 58 and 55 yards for touchdowns. He also intercepted two passes to set up another. It was just the Methodist's day—they got two touchdowns the first 10 minutes. They scored from everywhere. T. C. U. couldn't budge the mighty Mustang line once in scoring territory.

Bull Johnson, 250-pound Baylor center from Adrian, Tex., kicked a field goal from the 31 yard line with 15 seconds to play to give his team a victory that knocked the Rice Owls out of a second-place tie with S. M. U.

Baylor scored twice in the first period, Rice came back strong in the second half, scoring in the third and fourth quarters to tie the score.

CALIFORNIA WINS 6 TO 0 VICTORY TO END SEASON

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Chancellor in satisfactory fashion a season that otherwise lacked the excitement of other years, the University of California Bears defeated the St. Mary's Navy Pre-flight School, 5 to 0, today to wind up their 1954 football schedule.

A small turnout of 25,000 fans saw the Bears convert an out of bounds punt by the pre-flighters in the first period into what eventually became the winning score.

PROTEIN ADDED
BY USE OF NUTS

When you add nuts in any quantity to your meals you are adding a substantial contribution of both fat and protein, says Mrs. Mildred G. Swift, associate home demonstration agent.

And some nuts, particularly the peanut, contain iron and calcium in significant amounts.

"The flavors of nuts are vastly different," the agent asserts. "Black walnuts have a rich, dominant flavor that penetrates cookies or candy to the exclusion of most other flavors. English walnuts have a higher, daintier quality. . . they're dryer nuts with a crisp quality. Pecans have a definite flavor personality which many people consider particularly delicious in hot breads. When it comes to the delicate flavor of almonds, opinions differ concerning the best spot on the menu to serve them. But most connoisseurs recommend the almond for fruit desserts. . . either in salads or fruit desserts."

Since nuts are rolling your way, dust off the nut bowl, and polish the nut cracker. Plan to enjoy these treats while they're plentiful. Pecans contain as much as 70 per cent fat and protein. The other nuts are about half fat, or a little more.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW ORLEANS

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—How would you like to see Eastern backfield in the East-West game New Year's day composed of Army's Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard and Notre Dame's Frank Daniewicz and Elmer Angerman? . . . There's a precedent.

Army participation . . . in 1925 Ed Garbisch and Guy Farwick of Army and Bill Ingram of Navy all played for the East . . . And Bill Jones, Army's athletic boss, used to coach in the Shrine game . . . One sure thing, that quartet would drive Coach Andy (Double Wing) Kerr to take up the "T" formation . . . Ray (Scooter) Seavelle, the special back who took a Marine-directed tour from the U. of Connecticut to Yale to Tientsin, China, hopes to be back in action in the Yale Bowl next fall . . .

Spelling Bee

If there's a football player anywhere who has had more trouble getting his name spelled right (even in home town papers) than Utah State's Ray Hoopliani, Ray would like to know about it . . . That third "i" always gets the sports scribes, who never studied Hawaiian . . . P. S. No guarantee that it's spelled right here, either.

Sportspourri

Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler, who came east to attend the Army-Navy game with Gen. Jackie Devers, expects to move into his new Cincinnati offices by Dec. 15.

At that time Special Assistant Muddy Ruel, who has just been learning his job so far, will go on the payroll . . . The National Boxing Association, which hasn't held a convention since the war started, is holding its annual executive meeting this weekend.

Cleveland fans will present Riley Matheson, the Rams' veteran guard, with a station wagon between the halves of tomorrow's game with the Yanks . . . Probably the first thing Riley will do is knock the top off the thing so he can use it to haul hay on his New Mexico ranch . . . Long Island U. which helps open the Madison Square Garden basketball season against Valparaiso next week, holds the long-term Garden record of 56 wins and 23 losses. It's 53-21 against out-of-town teams.

Did you know that one Navy back has been riding the bench all season because he's too good? . . . Bill Bartlett, Lorain, O. Plebe, can't quite make the grade as a first stringer this year but the coaches think so much of his prospects that they won't let him use up a year's eligibility as a sub . . . Ex-heavyweight Champ Jack Sharkey is telling pals that he now has no connection with the Sharkey A. A. in Boston. It's being run by his old manager, Johnny Buckley . . . The grid giants have claimed Cotton Price and Jim Thomson, released by Detroit, but won't try to use them until next season. It's too late to help Steve Owen's squad this year.

HI-TY WINS HANDICAP AT FAIR GROUNDS OVAL

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Hi-Ty, fastest clocked in the betting on the $2,000 added Lake Providence Handicap at the Fair Grounds today and paid $66.50 for $2 in the mutuels.

Hi-Ty, owned by Louis de LaTour, of New Orleans, picked up $1,360 for the winner's end, and rewarded his owner for his second straight handicapping victory by meeting De LaTour's victory with Moretto in the Crescent City handicap a week ago.

The son of High Strung took command at the far turn and held off a fast finish by Espino Gold to win by a half length.

Hi-Ty paid $30.40 to place and $17.40 to show, winning Gold paid $9.00 and $5.20. Valdivia Lamar, winner of the Thanksgiving Handicap, came in third and paid $5.40. The running time was 1:12 3/5.

The winner was handled by Jockey C. Leblanc. The race was witnessed by about 5,000 spectators.

S. M. U. TRIMS T. C. U.
By 34 TO 0 MARGIN

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Southern Methodist turned Freshman Paul Page loose on Texas Christian today and the mid-season graduate from the second team dashed 51, 58 and 55 yards for touchdowns to spark the Mustangs to a 34-0 victory.

Baylor won over Rice 17-14 at Houston today and this, together with S. M. U.'s crushing defeat of T. C. U., gave the Methodists second place in the Southwest Conference. Texas won the championship with five victories against one loss.

AAA COMMITTEEN TO BE SELECTED

FERRIDAY, La.—Concordia parish farmers will take time out from seasonal work in the second week of December to elect AAA community and county committeemen for the coming year.

Three committeemen and two alternates, as well as a delegate to the county convention, will be chosen in each of the parish's four farming communities. The delegates will later elect the three-man committee which will administer AAA activities within the parish.

Chairman George Murray of the parish AAA said that dates, hours and places for holding the annual election are now being determined. Announcement will be made within the next few days, he stated. In the parish, he added, 700 farmers are eligible to vote on committeemen this year. Eligible farmers are those who participate in the 1945 agricultural conservation program. The parish AAA chairman is making a strong appeal for full participation of all farmers of the parish. He said: "Solution of the post-war problems ahead of us is a vital concern to every farmer, and all should vote."

If all the drive-in audits in the hatched-up U. S. S. Missouri were placed together, their length would total one fifth of a mile. The ship can generate enough electricity to handle the domestic and industrial load of a city of 20,000 population.

CITY ATTORNEYS IN LOCAL MEET

Assemble To Discuss Amendments Sought To Liquor License Laws

A meeting of a committee of city attorneys appointed by Frank H. Peterman, president of the City Attorneys' Association in Louisiana met in Monroe Thursday to discuss amendments to the acts of the legislature dealing with the licensing of those engaged in the business of selling liquor, beer and wine.

The committee meeting was attended by S. L. Digby, city attorney of Monroe, chairman of the committee; Frank H. Peterman, city attorney of Alexandria, and president of the City Attorneys' Association in Louisiana; C. E. Barham, city attorney of Ruston, and Roland B. Howell, representing the Brewers Foundation of America.

Amendments to the licensing laws will be prepared and submitted to the next session of the legislature which will grant to the local, city and parochial officers concurrent authority with state agencies in the matter of granting licenses and also with reference to the right to revoke licenses. The matter of zoning the business of engaging in the sale of alcoholic beverages was also discussed.

It is hoped that amendments can be adopted which will give the local authorities the right to pass upon applications for permits as well as the power to revoke them. Action on this subject was originally initiated by a letter written by Mayor Benoit to the State Collector of revenue several months ago.

During 1944 the Air Transport Command of the Army Air Force flew 600 million miles—24,000 times around the world.

THE NATION TODAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The most positive step taken by the labor-management conference probably was its recommendation that the U. S. conciliation service be strengthened.

This was a sensible but not sensational recommendation. It won't mean a thing unless carried through. Labor and management may push it. The government, taking a hint, may try to do it.

The recommendation calls for good conciliators at good pay. Better pay would need congressional approval. A conciliator's job is to try to get management and labor to start talking again when they fall out.

No one expected miracles from the conference which began four weeks ago and broke up last night. There were no miracles.

The conference was not expected at one stroke to wipe out current labor disputes. The conference made some recommendations which, if observed by all unions and bosses, would be a big help.

The conference, however, has no authority to force employers or union to follow the recommendations.

On some of the most basic labor-management problems facing the country now, the conference could not agree.

So there was no conference recommendation on these points which went out the window:

Wages; fact-finding or other important new machinery for settling or preventing industrial disputes; equal responsibility of labor and management under the law; specifying management's rights, job and responsibilities; unionization of foremen; and deferment of the right to strike before orderly methods of settling a dispute have been exhausted.

Labor and management leaders seemed to take pride in the points upon which they agreed. It was, perhaps, an achievement that they jointly went on record for some of these points.

They recommended:

1. Employers and unions should write into their contracts an agreement that there shall be no strikes or lockouts because of a dispute arising over the terms of a contract.

Both sides should try to settle it peacefully and, if they can't, let some impartial umpire or arbitrator or board settle it. This would not be compulsory arbitration. Both sides would have to agree to this arrangement.

This already is common practice in some fields. The men's and women's clothing industries, anthracite coal, millinery and automobiles.

2. An employer and a union should avoid strikes or lockouts while bargaining collectively and collective bargaining is the first step toward such avoidance. The conference outlined six steps to follow.

Under the law, once a union is recognized as the collective bargaining agent of workers, the boss is supposed to bargain with the union.

So this statement by the conference is not revolutionary. But it was an achievement to get labor and management on the line as saying that was the way to handle workers' demands.

And this regulation was passed:

"That the labor-management conference urge on all elements of labor and management the broad Democratic spirit of tolerance and equality of economic opportunity in respect to race, sex, color, religion, age, national origin or ancestry in determining who are employed and who are admitted to labor membership."

This is a broad statement. It does not really say there should be no discrimination. It makes no mention of the fair employment practice law, which would seek to prevent discrimination in hiring.

SALE OF E BONDS IS DISAPPOINTING

Co-Chairmen Of War Finance
Efforts

The sale of E bonds to date in Ouachita parish is keenly disappointing, and does not reflect the spirit which has characterized previous bond campaigns. It was stated by Co-Chairman C. D. Oakley and S. J. Rogers, of the Ouachita parish war finance committee. Only one week remains for citizens to purchase bonds in the current victory bond drive, which ends December 8, they stated.

Ouachita parish citizens are urged to get under the burden of this campaign this week and buy bonds to the extent of their ability, Messrs. Oakley and Rogers stated.

They issued the following statement:

"Ouachita parish has always raised its quota in previous bond campaigns, and our failure in this victory campaign is not only sadly disappointing but reflects upon our appreciation for the victory that has crowned our fighting men and women. Because the war is over, our responsibility to returning our armed forces home and continuing our efforts to keep the peace, is no reason for a let-down in our purchase of victory bonds."

"Let all patriotic citizens of Ouachita parish join hands this last week of the victory bond drive and buy bonds as we have never bought before. Only such efforts will avert a failure in reaching our quota by December 8."

"Sales of series E bonds up to date are only $210,000 with a quota of $583,000, leaving a balance of $373,000 to be purchased if our quota is to be reached. We, the citizens of this parish, have the extra money with which to buy these bonds and should do what our government has requested. 'Are we to lose our proud record that we have made during all previous campaigns? This is the last bond drive. Let us not fail. 'We can, we must, we will.'"

Bond sales of retail salespeople as reported to the merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce to date follows: Mrs. Ruth Green, Kaliski's Jewelry Co., $63,250; J. A. Smith, Standard Office Supply Company, $4,925; Elita Mae Temple, Ferd Levi Stationery Company, $1,100; A. J. Behr, Allen's Millinery, $1,000; Mollie Abrams, $2,325; Agnes Solomon, Lerner's, $30,300; Regina Scherck, Woman's Shop, $2,000; Mrs. Bushnell, Style Shop, $2,500; Effie Allen, Alice Henry's Hat Shop, $325; Lola Simmermaker, Silverstein's, $10,625; Mrs. Falcon Hearne, D. Masur and Son, $30,050; Mrs. Grace Noble, The Toggery, $20,100; and from the Palace, Mollie Michael, $16,625; Velma Harrell, $1,000; Jennie Smith, $6,825; Emma Rosenbaum, $6,075; Loretta French, $3,350; Maibel Hood, $2,250; Harriet Hirsch, $1,525; Katherine Wyatt, $1,500; Dora Davidson, $1,350; Ola Buce, $1,300; Mattie Douglas, $1,025; Fay Heard, $1,000; Mamie Ober, $925; L. A. Ford, $300; Ollie Baur, $200; Grace Aaron, $100; Myra Wilkinson, $100; Verna McNeely, $25.

A meeting of a committee of city attorneys appointed by Frank H. Peterman, president of the City Attorneys' Association in Louisiana met in Monroe Thursday to discuss amendments to the acts of the legislature dealing with the licensing of those engaged in the business of selling liquor, beer and wine.

The committee meeting was attended by S. L. Digby, city attorney of Monroe, chairman of the committee; Frank H. Peterman, city attorney of Alexandria, and president of the City Attorneys' Association in Louisiana; C. E. Barham, city attorney of Ruston, and Roland B. Howell, representing the Brewers Foundation of America.

Amendments to the licensing laws will be prepared and submitted to the next session of the legislature which will grant to the local, city and parol officers concurrent authority with state agencies in the matter of granting licenses and also with reference to the right to revoke licenses. The matter of zoning the business of engaging in the sale of alcoholic beverages was also discussed.

It is hoped that amendments can be adopted which will give the local authorities the right to pass upon applications for permits as well as the power to revoke them. Action on this subject was originally initiated by a letter written by Mayor Benoit to the State Collector of revenue several months ago.

During 1944 the Air Transport Command of the Army Air Force flew 600 million miles—24,000 times around the world.

Wages; fact-finding or other important new machinery for settling or preventing industrial disputes; equal responsibility of labor and management under the law; specifying management's rights, job and responsibilities; unionization of foremen; and deferment of the right to strike before orderly methods of settling a dispute have been exhausted.

Labor and management leaders seemed to take pride in the points upon which they agreed. It was, perhaps, an achievement that they jointly went on record for some of those points.

They recommended:

1. Employers and unions should write into their contracts an agreement that there shall be no strikes or lockouts because of a dispute arising over the terms of a contract.

Both sides should try to settle it peacefully and, if they can't, let some impartial umpire or arbitrator or board settle it. This would not be compulsory arbitration. Both sides would have to agree to this arrangement.

This already is common practice in some fields: The men's and women's clothing industries, anthracite coal, millinery and automobiles.

2. An employer and a union should avoid strikes or lockouts while bargaining collectively and collective bargaining is the first step toward such avoidance. The conference outlined six steps to follow.

Under the law, once a union is recognized as the collective bargaining agent of workers, the boss is supposed to bargain with the union.

So this statement by the conference is not revolutionary. But it was an achievement to get labor and management on the line as saying that was the way to handle workers' demands.

And this resolution was passed: "That the labor-management conference urge on all elements of labor and management the broad Democratic spirit of tolerance and equality of economic opportunity in respect to race, sex, color, religion, age, national origin or ancestry in determining who are employed and who are admitted to labor membership."

This is a broad statement. It does not flatly say there should be no discrimination. It makes no mention of the fair employment practices bill—which would seek to prevent discrimination—now in Congress.

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The most positive step taken by the labor-management conference probably was its recommendation that the U. S. conciliation service be strengthened.

This was a sensible but not sensational recommendation. It won't mean a thing unless carried through. Labor and management may push it. On the government, taking a hint, may try to do it.

The recommendation calls for good conciliators at good pay. Better pay would need congressional approval. A conciliator's job is to try to get management and labor to start talking again when they fall out.

No one expected miracles from the conference which began four weeks ago and broke up last night. There were no miracles.

The conference was not expected at one stroke to wipe out current labor disputes. The conference made some recommendations which, if observed by all unions and bosses, would be a big help.

The conference, however, has no authority to force employers or union to follow the recommendations.

On some of the most basic labor-management problems facing the country now, the conference could not agree.

So there was no conference recommendation on these points which went out the window:

Wages; fact-finding or other important new machinery for settling or preventing industrial disputes; equal responsibility of labor and management under the law; specifying management's rights, job and responsibilities; unionization of foremen; and deferment of the right to strike before orderly methods of settling a dispute have been exhausted.

SALE OF E BONDS IS DISAPPOINTING

Co-Chairmen Of War Finance
Efforts

The sale of E bonds to date in Ouachita parish is keenly disappointing, and does not reflect the spirit which has characterized previous bond campaigns, it was stated by Co-Chairman C. D. Oakley and S. J. Rogers, of the Ouachita parish war finance committee. Only one week remains for citizens to purchase bonds in the current victory bond drive, which ends December 8, they stated.

Ouachita parish citizens are urged to get under the burden of this campaign this week and buy bonds to the extent of their ability, Messrs. Oakley and Rogers stated.

They issued the following statement: "Ouachita parish has always raised its quota in previous bond campaigns, and our failure in this victory campaign is not only sadly disappointing but reflects upon our appreciation for the victory that has crowned our fighting men and women. Because the war is over, our responsibility to returning our armed forces home and continuing our efforts to keep the peace, is no reason for a let-down in our purchase of victory bonds."

"Let all patriotic citizens of Ouachita parish join hands this last week of the victory bond drive and buy bonds as we have never bought before. Only such efforts will avert a failure in reaching our quota by December 8."

"Sales of series E bonds up to date are only $210,000 with a quota of $383,000, leaving a balance of $373,000 to be purchased if our quota is to be reached. We, the citizens of this parish, have the extra money with which to buy these bonds and should do what our government has requested."

that we have made during all previous campaigns? This is the

Mr. Craig Addresses Fine Arts Club

Beautiful Music Of A Past Era Recalled By Mr. Craig In An Interesting Article

Mr. Joseph Craig presented an interesting paper on the lives of Gilbert and Sullivan when he appeared on the November program of the Fine Arts Club in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mayo. He said:

"Gilbert and Sullivan the magic of these two words, spelling half a century of lyrical and musical delight, seems to increase day by day. And day by day the beautiful music and classical wit seem to become fresher and more enjoyable instead of stereotyped or age-worn in any degree."

"How often have hum-drum, drab and uneventful days in rural or even cosmopolitan communities been enlivened by the jocular, mercurial and pleasantness which characterize a Savoyard performance? After an evening of Gilbert and Sullivan, one's entire being seems to radiate contentment because of a most satisfying, exhilarating feast."

"There is no trace of vulgarity, ridicule or bitterness in any of these operettas. Their chief attraction is that they are absolutely clean, abundant in humor, and cleverly satirical. The music has a lingering, lilting leaven about it which makes one long for more. Besides, they have been compared to some of the works of Lewis Carroll, in that they serve the audience with 'philosophical pills,' easily and pleasantly imbibed without becoming tiresome or didactic. The extraordinary degree of sound common sense in Gilbert's topsy-turvy nonsense makes them, popular even with the serious-minded."

"It should not be supposed that Gilbert ever ridiculed old age or ugliness. He merely showed, for example, how the world treats a 'plain woman' or a 'not-too-handsome-sailor.' But he is neither harsh nor hostile in his treatment."

"Sullivan's art, too, is in a class by itself. His genius in melodizing the clever lines of Gilbert has sung its own praises through these last six decades. And we confidently predict that it will continue to do so for twice as many more."

Sir William Schwenck Gilbert was born in London, November 18, 1836. He was a clerk in the privy council office from 1857 until 1861, and was called to the bar in 1863. He also served as a captain in the militia, and was an extremely prosperous comedy dramatist. He contributed to the leading magazines of the time and was on the staff of "Fun" in whose columns his celebrated "Bab Ballads" began to appear in 1866. His burlesque "Dulcamara" appeared also in 1866 and was followed by other burlesques, dramas, comedies, and fairy comedies. But it was his libretto of the Savoy operas, written with Sir Arthur Sullivan that formed his enduring title of fame. These began in 1875 when Richard D'Oyly Carte, manager of the D'Oyly Carte Theatre, commissioned the pair to write "Trial by Jury," a skit on the English law courts. This was so well received that the three formed a company which today is still known as the D'Oyly Carte Company, and the company continues to be housed in the Savoy Theatre, which was built for these masterpieces. We have already listed the operettas they produced. It is sufficient to state here that "The Mikado" is generally accepted as being their best production, while "Pinafore" and "The Pirates of Penzance" seem to be its greatest rivals in popularity, with perhaps "Iolanthe" and "The Gondoliers" also ranking close.

In 1885 a dispute with Sullivan and D'Oyly Carte, the producer, brought the series to a close, and so ended Gilbert's period of great years from 1870 to 1885, the pair wrote "Trial by Jury," "H. M. S. Pinafore," "The Pirates of Penzance," "Patience," "Iolanthe," "The Princess Ida," "The Mikado," "Ruddigore," "The Yeomen of the Guard," "The Gondoliers" and "Utopia, Limited." And in 1889 his general reputation was such that he was knighted. Sullivan was essentially a melodist and succeeded best lyrically. His vocal melody was based on an intense study of the meter of the words. His harmony was the simplest. His counterpoint was clean and clear; his orchestration, just sufficient to be pointed, and never extravagant. His products seem very simple and obvious until an attempt is made to imitate them. He did not marry, and

Charming Fairy Tale To Be Unfolded Tuesday

From the Clare Treg Major production of "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" which the Parker Memorial Class is bringing here on December 4, the Chairman, Mrs. Williams feels that the children will receive more than entertainment. She believes that this fantasy, (which will take them rapidly from the familiar to the unfamiliar), will be highly stimulating to the imagination.

The great inventions of the last sixty years came from the fertile minds of a world which had to think. Mrs. Williams reminds us. In the brief period since 1879 when Edison perfected the first incandescent lamp, we have been given the automobile, the telephone, the radio, the airplane, the motion-picture, and most of the wonders which have become our daily necessities. This generous outpouring of marvels has to an extent handicapped our children who have had their minds so constantly occupied by the results of these inventions that they almost lack time to create for themselves.

In answer to the question as to whether children of today are different from those of twenty-five years ago when she first started her Children's Theatre in New York, Clare Treg Major said, "No. Our children are just as eager for fantasy, for color and beauty of expression as those of a less sophisticated generation. We must see that these desires are stimulated and gratified. All educators know that one of the most important values in education is to stir the creative faculties of children, to lead them to being alert, inquiring, and imaginative."

"A play such as 'Aladdin' takes every child out of his practical everyday life into a world of magic. He will be entertained, but will also realize how many of his longings may be gratified if wishing hard enough impels him to dig what he wants out of hiding places with the help of the magic lamp of knowledge."

"Aladdin" will be given in Neville auditorium at 3:30 o'clock.

Opera Singer To Appear Here

Rosalind Nadell Will Appear Here In Concert Under Auspices Of Civic Music

Adding lustre to the holiday season will be the Civic Music Association concert December 12 at Northeast Junior College at which time Rosalind Nadell, lovely young mezzo-soprano of radio, concert and opera will be presented. Although still in her early twenties, Miss Nadell has won laurels in almost every vocal artistic medium. Scarcely out of her teens in 1942, she sang leading mezzo-soprano roles with the Philadelphia opera company in that city and in Boston. The following year she sang her way to national concert prominence with the winning of the Marion Anderson Prize, and in February 1944 she accepted a leading position with the City Center opera company in New York. In the summer of that year she made her successful Broadway debut as Juno in "Helen Goes to Troy."

The year 1945 seems to have big things in store for the talented young Philadelphia. In January she made her bid for the peak of operatic achievement with her appearance on the Metropolitan additions of the air. And in March of this year, she appeared as soloist with the Philadelphia orchestra under Eugene Ormandy in the first orchestral performance in this country of the "Alexander Nevsky Suite" by Prokofiev.

In addition to these activities, Rosalind Nadell may also be considered one of the pioneer performers in television, having appeared in the historic N. B. C. television production of Carmen, and on several other operatic television shows. Her activities in radio have been equally numerous, including several concerts over New York City's musical station, WQXR, and several network coast to coast broadcasts.

Not a little awed by her rapid rise to success, Miss Nadell continues to work as hard as ever and says she intends to master every role within her vocal range. She already has appeared with particular distinction in such roles as Carmen, Mignon, Cherubino, Marcelina and Barbarina in the "Marriage of Figaro" and Olga, Filjevna and Larina in "Eugene Onegin."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mallory Graves of Winsboro announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Evelyn, to Everett W. Harvell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harvell of Memphis, Tenn.

The wedding will take place at the Winsboro Baptist church on December 25 at five o'clock in the afternoon. Friends are invited through this medium.

Roberts-Miller Nuptial Event Is Of Interest Here

Of sincere and affectionate interest to many friends throughout North Louisiana, was the marriage of Miss Roberta Carolyn Roberts, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Roberts of Jena, and Bobby Gayle Miller, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Duane Miller of Farmville, at the home of the bride's parents.

The impressive single ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon by the bride's father, pastor of the Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The improvised altar, before which the nuptial vows were spoken, was flanked with baskets of white and yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, forming a pyramid entirely banking the fireplace. The scene was reflected in the large mirror entwined with southern smilax. White tapers in silver candelabra, burned at either end of the mantel.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Bonnie Sheppard, pianist, played "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love You Truly." The bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrien" was used as processional. During the ceremony "Always" was softly played. The candles were lighted by Mrs. De Ferkins.

The bride wore a lovely gold wool jersey model, trimmed in gold spangles, and a brown felt hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of white satin ribbon. She wore an antique brooch that had been in her mother's family more than two hundred years. For sentimental reasons she carried the handkerchief that had been carried by all members of her family on their wedding days.

Miss Margaret Anders, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a becomingly aqua blue wool jersey trimmed in gold nail-heads with black accessories and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. Stein Baughman of Farmville served the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Roberts, mother of the bride, was attired in an azure blue crepe with corsage of pink rose buds. Mrs. Miller, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black crepe model with a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. The bride's table, overlaid with an imported lace cloth, was centered with a beautiful arrangement of white pom pom chrysanthemums and fern in a low crystal bowl, flanked on either side with silver candelabra holding burning white tapers. At one end of the table was the three-tiered wedding cake, beautifully embellished in rosebuds and fern. Mrs. J.

A. Coleman poured coffee from a handsome silver service, placed the other end of the table. Mrs. Sheppard Nicholson served the cake, after the bride had cut the first slice.

Mrs. T. A. Bradford presided over the bride's book. The bride's gift her attendant was a pair of lovely gold earrings.

Following the reception, Mr. Miller and his bride left by motor for brief wedding trip.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Jena High School and attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute. Mr. Miller is a graduate of the Farmville High School and he also attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, where he was affiliated with the Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home in Farmville in the home of Mr. Miller's parents, awaiting his call into the armed forces.

It is sufficient to state here that "The Mikado" is generally accepted as being their best production, while "Pinafore" and "The Pirates of Penzance" seem to be its greatest rivals in popularity, with prelates "Iolanthe" and "The Gondoliers" also ranking close.

In 1885 a dispute with Sullivan and D'Oyly Carte, the producer, brought the series to a close, and so ended Gilbert's period of great years from 1870 to 1885, the pair wrote "Trial by Jury," "H. M. S. Pinafore," "The Pirates of Penzance," "Patience," "Iolanthe," "Princess Ida," "The Mikado," "Rudigore," "The Yeomen of the Guard," "The Gondoliers," and "Utopia, Limited." And in 1883 his general reputation was such that he was knighted. Sullivan was essentially a melodist and succeeded best lyrically. His vocal melody was based on an intense study of the meter of the words. His harmony was the simplest. His counterpoint was clean and clear; his orchestration just sufficient to be pointed, and never extravagant. His products seem very simple and obvious until an attempt is made to imitate them. He did not marry, and

From the Clare Tree Major production of "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" which the Parker Memorial Class is bringing here on December 4, the Chairman, Mrs. Williams feels that the children will receive more than entertainment. She believes that this fantasy, which will take them rapidly from the familiar to the unfamiliar, will be highly stimulating to the imagination.

The great inventions of the last sixty years came from the fertile minds of a world which had to think. Mrs. Williams reminds us. In the brief period since 1879 when Edison perfected the first incandescent lamp, we have been given the automobile, the telephone, the radio, the airplane, the motion-picture, and most of the wonders which have become our daily necessities. This generous outpouring of marvels has to an extent handicapped our children who have had their minds so constantly occupied by the results of these inventions that they almost lack time to create for themselves.

In answer to the question as to whether children of today are different from those of twenty-five years ago when she first started her Children's Theatre in New York, Clare Tree Major said, "No. Our children are just as eager for fantasy, for color and beauty of expression as those of a less sophisticated generation. We must see that these desires are stimulated and gratified. All educators know that one of the most important values in education is to stir the creative faculties of children, to lead them to being alert, inquiring, and imaginative."

"A play such as 'Aladdin' takes every child out of his practical everyday life into a world of magic. He will be entertained, but will also realize how many of his longings may be gratified if wishing hard enough impels him to dig what he wants out of hiding places with the help of the magic lamp of knowledge."

"Aladdin" will be given in Neville auditorium at 3:30 o'clock.

Opera Singer To Appear Here

Rosalind Nadell Will Appear Here In Concert Under Auspices Of Civic Music

Adding lustre to the holiday season will be the Civic Music Association concert December 12 at Northeast Junior College at which time Rosalind Nadell, lovely young mezzo-soprano of radio, concert and opera will be presented. Although still in her early twenties, Miss Nadell has won laurels in almost every vocal artistic medium. Scarcely out of her teens in 1942, she sang leading mezzo-soprano roles with the Philadelphia opera company in that city and in Boston. The following year she sang her way to national concert prominence with the winning of the Marion Anderson Prize, and in February 1944 she accepted a leading position with the City Center opera company in New York. In the summer of that year she made her successful Broadway debut as Juno in "Helen Goes to Troy."

The year 1945 seems to have big things in store for the talented young Philadelphia. In January she made her bid for the peak of operatic achievement with her appearance on the Metropolitan auditions of the air. And in March of this year, she appeared as soloist with the Philadelphia orchestra under Eugene Ormandy in the first orchestral performance in this country of the "Alexander Nevsky Suite" by Prokofiev.

In addition to these activities, Rosalind Nadell may also be considered one of the pioneer performers in television, having appeared in the historic N. B. C. television production of Carmen, Mignon, Cherubino, Marcellina and Barbarina in the "Marriage of Figaro" and Olga, Filijewna and Larina in "Eugene Onegin."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mallory Graves of Winnsboro announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Evelyn, to Everett W. Harvell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harvell of Memphis, Tenn.

The wedding will take place at the Winnsboro Baptist church on December 25 at five o'clock in the afternoon. Friends are invited through this medium.

Roberts-Miller Nuptial Event Is Of Interest Here

Of sincere and affectionate interest to many friends throughout North Louisiana, was the marriage of Miss Roberta Carolyn Roberts, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Roberts of Jena, and Bobby Gayle Miller, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Drue Miller of Farmville, at the home of the bride's parents.

The impressive single ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon by the bride's father, pastor of the Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The improvised altar, before which the nuptial vows were spoken, was flanked with baskets of white and yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, forming a pyramid entirely banking the fireplace. The scene was reflected in the large mirror, entwined with southern smiles. White tapers in silver candelabra, bunched at either end of the mantel.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Bennie Sheppard, pianist, played "Ain't Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love You Truly." The bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was used as processional. During the ceremony "Always" was softly played. The candles were lighted by Mrs. Dee Perkins.

The bride wore a lovely gold wool jersey model, trimmed in gold spangles, and a brown felt hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of gold satin ribbon. She wore an antique brooch that had been in her mother's family more than two hundred years. For sentimental reasons she carried the handkerchief that had been carried by all members of her family on their wedding days.

Miss Margaret Anders, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a becomingly aqua blue wool jersey trimmed in gold nail-heads with black accessories and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. Stein Baughman of Farmville served the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Roberts, mother of the bride, was attired in an azure blue crepe with corsage of pink rose buds. Mrs. Miller, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black crepe model with a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. The bride's table, overlaid with an imported lace cloth, was centered with a beautiful arrangement of white pom pom chrysanthemums and fern in a low crystal bowl, flanked on either side with silver candelabra holding burning white tapers. At one end of the table was the three-tiered wedding cake, beautifully embellished in rosebuds and fern. Mrs. J.

A. Coleman poured coffee from a handsome silver service, placed the other end of the table. Mrs. Sheppard Nicholson served the cake, after the bride had cut the first slice.

Mrs. T. A. Bradford presided over the reception. Mr. Miller and his bride left by motor for brief wedding trip.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Jena High School and attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute. Mr. Miller is a graduate of the Farmville High School and he also attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, where he was affiliated with Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home in Farmville in the home of Mr. Miller's parents, awaiting his call into the armed forces.

Nuptial Event In Jackson Home

Marriage Of Miss Wright And Mr. Lee Is Of Interest To Wide Circle Of Friends

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar N. Jackson, on Roselawn, was the scene of an interesting nuptial event when Miss Joyce Gertrude Wright, daughter of Mrs. Aileen Sinclair Wright, of this city, became the bride of Harold Pershing Lee, son of Mr. Luther Lee, and the late Mrs. Lee, of Vivian, La.

The drawing room was converted into a chapel with an improvised altar banked with white chrysanthemums and flanked with candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Mrs. John Holman, pianist, rendered a brilliant nuptial concert and accompanied Mrs. M. Serex who sang in beautiful voice, "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of azure blue crepe beaded in sequins. Her hair was of pink feathers and her accessories were of black. She carried a ivory bound prayer book marked with a spray of orchids and tube roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Don Munnerlyn, who wore a dress of shocking pink crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Harmon Idom served the bridegroom as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held. The bride's table was overlaid with an imported lace banquet cloth with the tiered wedding cake at one end at which Mrs. Bert Kouns presided and Mrs. W. H. Crenshaw and Mrs. Harry Oliver alternating at the punch bowl at the other end. White candles burning in silver candelabra entwined with fern extended the length of the table.

Assisting in the courtesies were Mrs. Brent Huley, Mrs. John Webb, Miss Ruth Prim and Mrs. Margaret Mason. Mrs. Dan Beecham was in charge of the guest book. The bride and groom left for New Orleans for a short honeymoon. For traveling the bride wore a two piece wool suit of black and American beauty red, with black accessories and wore a white orchid.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Means and Mrs. A. B. Goodson of Vivian, Mrs. Leon Noel of Gilliam, Mrs. W. H. Carpenter of Bethany, Mrs. Hal Lewis and Mrs. Bert Kouns of Shreveport.

The navy's first jet-propelled fighter plane, the "Fireball," is also its first to have tricycle landing gear.

Nuptial Event In Jackson Home

Marriage Of Miss Wright And Mr. Lee Is Of Interest To Wide Circle Of Friends

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar N. Jackson, on Roselawn, was the scene of an interesting nuptial event when Miss Joyce Gertrude Wright, daughter of Mrs. Aileen Sinclair Wright, of this city, became the bride of Harold Pershing Lee, son of Mr. Luther Lee, and the late Mrs. Lee, of Vivian, La.

The drawing room was converted into a chapel with an improvised altar banked with white chrysanthemums and flanked with candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Mrs. John Johnson, pianist, rendered a brilliant nuptial concert and accompanied Mrs. A. M. Serex who sang in beautiful voice, "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of azure blue crepe beaded in sequins. Her hair was of pink feathers and her accessories were of black. She carried ivory bound prayer book marked with a spray of orchids and tube roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Don Munnerlyn, who wore a dress of shocking pink crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Harmon Idem served the bridegroom as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held.

The bride's table was overlaid with an imported lace banquet cloth with the tiered wedding cake at one end at which Mrs. Bert Koums presided and Mrs. W. H. Crenshaw and Mrs. Harry Oliver alternating at the punch bowl at the other end. White candles burning in silver candelabra entwined with fern extended the length of the table.

Assisting in the courtesies were Mrs. Brent Huley, Mrs. Julia Webb, Miss Ruth Priam and Mrs. Margaret Mason. Mrs. Dan Beecham was in charge of the guest book.

The bride and groom left for New Orleans for a short honeymoon. For traveling the bride wore a two piece wool suit of black and American beauty red, with black accessories and wore a white orchid.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Means and Mrs. A. B. Woodson of Vivian, Mrs. Leon Noel of Gilliam, Mrs. W. H. Carpenter of Bethany, Mrs. Hal Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Koums of Shreveport.

The navy's first jet-propelled fighter plane, the "Fireball," is also its first to have tricycle landing gear.

Mrs. Collins Gives A Book Review At Club Meeting

Mrs. H. V. Collins reviewed "The Open City" by Shelley Smith Mydans at the November meeting of the Miro Book club in the home of Mrs. Sam Collins. She said in part:

This book is a novel. The characters are imaginary and many of the incidents are fictional.

The background of this book, however, is real. Santo Tomas Internment camp in Manila—like the dozen other civilian camps in Japanese-occupied territories—is a very real place and 3,500 people were living on there as this book was written. Most of them were Americans; some were British, Dutch, Polish, and South American. They were men, women and children, ages ranging from a few months to seventy-five years. There were businessmen who built their lives in the Far East, refugees headed home to America from the war in China, widows of men who died on Bataan and in the prisoner-of-war camps after Bataan.

Shelley Smith Mydans and her husband Carl, were interned with these people when the Japanese entered Manila in January, 1942. They lived with them in Santo Tomas for 8½ months. Then were transferred by the Japanese to Shanghai and interned again, in Chapei "civil assembly center."

They were among the 1500 out of 15,000 civilian prisoners of the Japanese whose luck was good, and came home to America on the last trip of the Gripsholm. As they left or rode out the gate to freedom—the lucky ones stood at the main building, their arms raised in farewell. The band played, and they sang "God Bless America."

Katharine has an apartment on the fifth and top floor of an apartment.

Vinny has been living with her, while Louie lived in the hotel until the Jap soldiers came into the city. She then moved in with Katharine and Vinny.
For five days there was bombing. After that the civilians were taken in trucks to the crowded compound of Santo Tomas University along with some 2000 other internees. Normal living stops, and like passengers on a fogbound ship they have to adjust themselves to the uncertainty and helplessness of being cut off from the rest of the world. Under the strain some grow in stature; others break.

Little Theatre Season To Open

First Little Theatre Play Of The Season Will Be Gala Event Of Holidays

An event long anticipated and coming at a time when everyone is in a festive mood is the first Little Theatre play of the season, "The Damask Cheek," under the direction of Louis Guerriero on the nights of December 20 and 21.

A vintage comedy of manners, "The Damask Cheek" strikes a note of nostalgia and old-fashioned charm which provides a complete evening in the theatre without so much as a shade of reference to wars, past or current.

The time is 1908. The play has to do with a sedate and repressed English spinster who has been sent to America to live with her aunt in the hope of finding a husband. Rhoda is secretly in love with her second cousin, whom she has known since both were children.

Her cousin, who treats her as a confidante, with condescension and misapprehension of her virtues, has reached middle age without ever having grown up emotionally and fancies himself in love with a slightly tarnished young actress. But Rhoda, homely and sedate as she is, has feminine resources far greater than has the younger and more superficially glamorous woman.

There are a number of amusing domestic crises, some anticlimactic conventions, some decorous philandering on the sly, and a rousing and very funny brawl involving two of the ladies which combine to make "The Damask Cheek" one of the most satisfactory comedies of the past several seasons.

A few old and some new faces will be seen in the local production of "The Damask Cheek." Mrs. William Ross Lawrence will appear as Rhoda Meldrum and playing opposite her will be Lt. Wesley Bernard. Miss Gail McDonald plays Calla Longstreth, the "slightly tarnished" young actress.

Others in the cast include Miss Dixie Madden, Miss Sharor Anderson, Mrs. Judy Caraway, Mr. Malcolm Steen and Lt. James Stewart. Louis Guerriero is directing the comedy.

In September of this year, talented Miss Patricia Shaughnessy, a sophomore at St. Matthew's School, wrote an original lyric which she forwarded to the composer, J. Charles McNeil, A. B. master of music at Los Angeles, Calif. The copyright receipt and the music to her song, "Am I to Blame," were received last week, when the school Glee Club gave the song a try-out, and found it excellent.

Family Reunion Honors Five Sons

The return of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Weber's five sons from overseas called for a family reunion in the Weber home. The five sons came from Northern Germany and France, the Coral Sea and the Philippines and were the honor guests at a family dinner party. It was the traditional Thanksgiving feast although somewhat belated as the guests of honor arrived home after Thanksgiving.

The sons, home from overseas, included Sgt. G. Burke Weber, who served with the army military police in American defense for five years. Sgt. Weber trained first at Camp Walters, Texas, but was discharged from Camp Bowie, Texas, where he was a guard over German prisoners of war. Sgt. Weber is a wearer of the American defense (pre-Pearl Harbor) ribbon and the good conduct medal.

He was accompanied by his wife, Milton. Marine Sgt. James C. Weber served with the Second marine division in the Pacific theater. His campaign record includes: Defense station in New Zealand and New Caledonia, landing and liberation of Guadalcanal, decoy in the Coral Sea, fighting on Tarawa, Saipan, Tinian. He was stationed for seven months on Saipan before he returned to the United States. Sgt. James Weber got his basic training at the marine base at San Diego, Calif. He was in the service three and one-half years and overseas 26 1/2 months. He wears the Pacific theater ribbon, American defense ribbon, Presidential Unit Citation with two stars, French Unit Citation to Sixth marines, bronze star for Saipan, and Good Conduct medal.

T. S. Royer fought in the European theater of operations for 11 months. His campaign carried him through northern France, the Rhine, battle of the Bulge, and central Germany. He wears the E. T. O. ribbon with three stars, the good conduct medal, infantry combat badge, and Presidential Unit Citation. Royer was in service 35 months and was attached to the Canadian First during the battle of the Bulge.

Pvt. Charles E. Weber, accompanied by his bride, the former Rose Kerkes of Jersey City, N. J., was enjoying his discharge after five and one-half years in the service, 13 months of which he spent overseas. His fighting took him through Normandy, northern France, Ardennes and the Rhine. He wears the Good Conduct ribbon, the American defense (pre-Pearl Harbor) ribbon, the E. T. O. ribbon with four stars, the arrowhead for landing in France on D-day, and the Purple Heart with one cluster.

Sgt. Walter S. D. Weber, discharged after 26 months in the service, 11 months with the 307th bomber group, 421 bomb squadron, was stationed in the Netherlands East Indies and made 42 missions or 432 combat hours over enemy targets in the Philippines and Borneo. He wears the Air Medal with three clusters, Philippine Liberation Medal, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with five battle stars, Presidential Citation and the Good Conduct medal. Other children at the reunion were Mrs. Clara Weber Busbee and three sons, James, Claude, William, and Sammy, of Oak Grove; Miss Edith Weber of Monroe; and J. Robert Weber of Dunn.

Guests of the George Webers were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Foust of Waverly and Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Anderson and four children, Rosa, Kent Jr., June, and Robert of Bovina, Miss.

Nuptials Event In England Of Interest Here

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Betty Elaine Breeze, daughter of Captain and Mrs. J. L. Breeze of "Iona," Mitcham Road, Dymchurch, England, and Sergeant Morris Henry Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jones of Monroe, La.

The ceremony took place at the Dymchurch Parish Church with the rector, Rev. A. F. Simons, officiating.

Business Women Guests At Party

Members of the Monroe Business and Professional Women's Club were delightfully entertained during the Thanksgiving season in the charming and hospitable home of Miss Marie Ober. Lovely fall flowers were effectively used in decoration and the group of co-hostesses, wearing corsages of white chrysanthemums, assisted in extending courtesies.

A most interesting program had been arranged by Miss Maible Hood, program chairman, on "Louisiana," which included group singing of the song "Louisiana," a discussion of Louisiana literature by Miss Sarah Helen Word, of the Northeast Junior College faculty, and a resume of Louisiana laws relating to women by Mr. Everett Burgoyne, attorney, of Monroe. During the evening a memory contest on things pertaining to Thanksgiving was enjoyed, and the winner, Mrs. Evelyn Atkinson, was presented with a lovely water-color painting of a magnolia, the Louisiana flower, by Miss Hood.

As the Christmas season is near, Mrs. Mae Modes presented the need for assistance in providing holiday cheer for the patients in the Crippled Children's Clinic and cooperation was pledged by club members. An appeal having also been received from Mrs. Milan, on behalf of the Red Cross, for help with the making of garments, this also received interested and sympathetic attention and ready response.

At the conclusion of the program, delicious salad plates with Russian tea were served by Miss Ober, with the assistance of the following co-hostesses: Mrs. Cecil Barron, Mrs. Alys Hootel, Miss Hazel Wakefield, Miss Mary O'Kelly, and Mrs. Blanche Colvin.

Purely Personal

One of Louisiana's war heroes, Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault, will speak in Chicago on Dec. 18 when he will be presented in Orchestra hall by the Colonial Dames of America. His talk will highlight the Illinois society 50th anniversary celebration.

This undertaking, even though it celebrates the Illinois society's 50th anniversary, according to a writer in the Chicago Tribune, is nothing short of revolutionary, for the Dames are given to great unobtrusiveness. The special work of the Colonial Dames society is to help the needy corner to the American scene assimilate our life and ideals.

A story that is written for posterity in poignant manner is "Plantation Parade" by Harnett T. Kane. We thoroughly recommend this book for the reader who would like to plunge deep into the roots of plantation life as it was lived in the white-pillared mansions in the fertile bayou lands of the deep south.

Mr. Kane, in his latest book "Plantation Parade," says: "The plantation was a municipality in itself and the house was the heart but not the whole. The house," he says, "might be set down in a city square and have nothing of romance and allure; that is the background and the house that is the setting for the new life that made it different from any other spot in the world."

Without the help of the slaves, according to Mr. Kane, there could have been no plantation; the grand and peculiar life of the day which attracted all of America, would not have been possible without their help.

One especially interesting chapter in "Plantation Parade" tells of the plantation on picturesque False River—Laurie. Here the fabulous Virginia reigned when she was not conducting a salon in Paris. Virginia, once Trahan, emerged as the Lady of False River. She gave to the delectable home an elixir it had not yet experienced. Even in post-war years of adversity she held the place together.

Familiar to most people in this section of the south is Magnolia Mound, the property of Miss Blanche Duncan, where Prince Achille Murat once lived. Mr. Kane revealed some choice morsels about the Prince and his penchant for rare dishes... baked owl for instance. He believed that cherry tree sawdust contained values that improved physique and endurance so he had it fed to his slaves. The Prince, a nephew of Napoleon Bonaparte, chewed tobacco constantly and when he found no cigarettes in a friend's parlor he would use the furry hide of his shepherd dog for the purpose.

The volume deals almost exclusively with South Louisiana but the author devotes one chapter to Mrs. Cammie Garrett Henry "Cammie" as she is called, is a "Louisiana phenomenon, like a bayou or a crawfish digging under the levee" the author comments. She likes youth—the older give her the creeps.

According to records, "Plantation Parade" has broken all Louisiana records for book sales during the first few days of publication.

Birthdays are happy milestones along life's way when they are marked by such charming courtesies as were shown Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Corley whose anniversaries were celebrated during the month of November.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Harrington entertained with a buffet supper party in their home on Riverside in honor of Mr. Corley and Mrs. William Grace entertained Mrs. Corley's most intimate friends at a chicken dinner at his country home "Grace Haven."

The dinner, served country style, was sumptuous with all the things forbidden during the war years, adding the last note of perfection.

The highlight of the afternoon was the bestowing of gifts. Each guest remembered Mrs. Corley with a lovely gift with card attached bearing bits of sentimental verse. An hour of happy reminiscence followed.

It is interesting to note that among the composers represented on the program presented by the Eastern Rochester Symphony Orchestra at the annual Fall Symposium of the American Company's Conservatory of the Eastern School of Music was Mr. William Parks Grant, well-known musician and composer, who is head of the music department of Northeast Junior College here in Monroe.

Mrs. Robbie F. Williams, who makes her home in New York City, arrived Friday to visit her sisters, Dr. Minnie Fink and Mrs. John G. Sanders at 2 Pine street. Later she will accompany them to New Orleans to spend the Christmas season in the home of Mrs. James Miller.

Miss Carmena Is The Bride Of Mr. Brodnax

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Nell Carmena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carmena of Alexandria, La., and Charles A. Hill, Radionian 3/c, U. S. Navy, son of Mrs. Fred Brodnax of Monroe, La., was solemnized Wednesday, November 21, 1943, at 3:30 p. m. at the home of Rev. L. T. Hastings at Monroe, La. Rev. Hastings, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and former pastor of the bride's family, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a Navy blue tailored suit, with feather hat in shades of blue, and with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and azaleas.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Mary Edna Cole of Ruston, La. She wore a fuchsia suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of American Beauty roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Billy Clement of Monroe, La.

Mrs. Hill is a graduate of Louisiana Tech and is a member of Phi Mu Sorority, and the groom attended Northeast Junior College and is a member of Phi Kappa Fraternity. He has just returned from 23 months at sea duty in the South Pacific.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home with their parents until Radionian Hill reports back to duty on the west coast.

C. D. A. WILL MEET TWICE THIS WEEK

Catholic Daughters of America, Court St. Matthew, No. 1141, will hold a regular business meeting Monday at 8 p. m. Rev. Father Curran, guest speaker, will talk on "The Clash of Communism."

A banquet will be held in Hotel Frances, Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., which will be to celebrate the 16th anniversary of the founding of this organization here.

Mrs. W. B. Norsworthy and daughter, Miss Mary Anne Norsworthy, of Monroe, were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Alton Norsworthy in Collinsville, Tuesday evening, at a beautifully-planned shower for Miss Alice Virginia Eldridge, whose wedding to Mr. Roy Norman of Oak Ridge will be an event of Sunday, December 2, at the Reilly Memorial Methodist Church in Collinsville.

At the close of an interesting contest, Mrs. F. E. Hogan was declared winner. She graciously presented the prize, a cook book, to Miss Eldridge. The honoree was directed, in a most clever manner, to wedding bells overhanging a huge basket of miscellaneous gifts. Among them were pieces of silver, crystal and china, in her chosen patterns.

In the dining room, which was melow with candlelight, Mrs. J. T. Howell and Mrs. B. W. Hoppood presided at the silver coffee and tea services at either end of the lace covered table. The central decor was a miniature bride and groom reflected in a mirror plaque framed in gold and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. W. H. Griffin and Miss Blanche Freeman, of Monroe, and Mrs. A. J. Tarver, Mrs. J. G. Pyron, Mrs. J. T. Howell, Mrs. B. W. Hoppood, Miss Marie Hodges, Miss Louise Adams, Miss Walter Mae Dalgarn, and the hostesses.

Business Women Guests At Party

Members of the Monroe Business and Professional Women's Club were delightfully entertained during the Thanksgiving season in the charming and hospitable home of Miss Mamie Ober.

Lovely fall flowers were effectively used in decoration and the group of co-hostesses, wearing corsages of white chrysanthemums, assisted in extending courtesies. A most interesting program had been arranged by Miss Maible Hood, program chairman, on "Louisiana," which included group singing of the song "Louisiana"; a discussion of Louisiana literature by Miss Sarah Helen Word, of the Northeast Junior College faculty, and a resume of Louisiana laws relating to women by Mr. Everett Burgoyne, attorney of Monroe. During the evening a memory contest on things pertaining to Thanksgiving was enjoyed, and the winner, Mrs. Evelyn Atkinson, was presented with a lovely water-color painting of a magnolia, the Louisiana flower, by Miss Hood.

As the Christmas season is near, Mrs. Mae Modes presented the need for assistance in providing holiday cheer for the patients in the Crippled Children's Clinic, and cooperation was pledged by club members. An appeal having also been received from Mrs. Milam, on behalf of the Red Cross, for help with the making of garments, this also received interested and sympathetic attention and ready response.

At the conclusion of the program, delicious salad plates with Russian tea were served by Miss Ober, with the assistance of the following co-hostesses: Mrs. Cecil Barron, Mrs. Aylie Hootel, Miss Hazel Wakefield, Miss Mary O'Kelly, and Mrs. Blanche Colvin.

Purely Personal

One of Louisiana's war heroes, Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault, will speak in Chicago on Dec. 18 when he will be presented in Orchestra hall by the Colonial Dames of America. His talk will highlight the Illinois society 50th anniversary celebration.

This undertaking, even though it celebrates the Illinois society's 50th anniversary, according to a writer in the Chicago Tribune, is nothing short of revolutionary, for the Dames are given to great unobtrusiveness. The special work of the Colonial Dames society is to help the newcomer to the American scene assimilate our life and ideals.

A story that is written for posterity in poignant manner is "Plantation Parade" by Harriet T. Kane. We thoroughly recommend this book for all those who would like to plunge deep into the roots of plantation life as it was lived in the white-pillared mansions in the fertile bayou lands of the deep south.

Mr. Kane, in his latest book "Plantation Parade," says: "The plantation was a municipality in itself and the house was the heart but not the whole. The house," he says, "might be set down in a city square and have nothing of romance and allure; that it was the background of the house—the setting, the customs; the leisurely life that made it different from any other spot in the world."

Without the help of the slaves, according to Mr. Kane, there could have been no plantation; the grand and peculiar life of the day which attracted all of America, would not have been possible without their help.

One especially interesting chapter in "Plantation Parade" tells of the plantation on picturesque False River—Parlange. Here the fabulous Virginia reigned when she was not conducting a salon in Paris. Virginia, nee Trahan, emerged as the Lady of False River. She gave to the deTernant home an éclat it had not yet experienced. Even in post-war years of adversity she held the place to gether.

Familiar to most people in this section of the south is Magnolia Mound, the property of Miss Blanche Duncan, where Prince Achille Murat once lived. Mr. Kane revealed some choice morsels about the Prince and his penchant for rare dishes... baked owl for instance. He believed that cherry tree sawdust contained values that improved physique and endurance so he had it fed to his slaves. The Prince, a nephew of Napoleon Bonaparte, chewed tobacco constantly and when he found no cuspidors in a friend's parlor he would use the furry hide of his shepherd dog for the purpose.

The volume deals almost exclusively with South Louisiana but the author devotes one chapter to Mrs. Cammie Garrett Henry, "Cammie" as she is called, is a "Louisiana phenomenon, like a bayou or a crawfish digging under the levee" the author comments. She likes youth—the elders give her the creeps."

According to records, "Plantation Parade" has broken all Louisiana records for book sales during the first few days of publication.

Birthdays are happy milestones along life's way when they are marked by such charming courtesies as were shown Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cooley whose anniversaries were celebrated during the month of November.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Harrington entertained with a buffet supper party in their home on Riverside in honor of Mr. Cooley and Mr. William Grasse entertained Mrs. Cooley's most intimate friends at a chicken dinner at his country home "Grasse Haven."

The dinner, served country style, was sumptuous with all the things forbidden during the war years, adding the last note of perfection.

The highlight of the afternoon was the bestowing of gifts. Each guest remembered Mrs. Cooley with a lovely gift with card attached bearing bits of sentimental verse. An hour of happy reminiscing followed.

It is interesting to note that among the composers represented on the program presented by the Eastman-Rochester Symphony Orchestra at the annual Fall Symposium of the American Composers Concerts of the Eastman School of Music was Mr. William Parks Grant, well-known musician and composer, who is head of the music department of Northeast Junior College, here in Monroe.

Mrs. Robbie F. Williams, who makes her home in New York City, arrived Friday to visit her sisters, Dr. Minnie Faulk and Mrs. John G. Sanders at 9 Pine street. Later she will accompany them to New Orleans to spend the Christmas season in the home of Mrs. Innes Millar.

Miss Carmena Is The Bride Of Mr. Brodnax

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Neil Carmena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carmena of Alexandria, La. and Charles A. Hill, Radioman 3/c U. S. Navy, son of Mrs. Fred Brodnax of Monroe, La., was solemnized Wednesday, November 21, 1945, at 3:30 p. m. at the home of Rev. L. T. Hastings at Monroe, La. Rev. Hastings, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and former pastor of the bride's family, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a Navy blue tailored suit with feather hat in shades of blue and with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and azaleas.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Mary Edna Cole of Ruston, La. She wore a fuchsia suit with black accessories. The groom was of American Beauty roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Billy Clement of Monroe, La.

Mrs. Hill is a graduate of Louisiana Tech and is a member of Phi Mu Sorority, and the groom attended Northeast Junior College and is a member of Phi Kappa Fraternity. He has just returned from 23 months at sea duty in the South Pacific.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home with their parents until Radioman Hill reports back to duty on the west coast.

C. D. A. WILL MEET TWICE THIS WEEK

Silver Tea Is A Great Success

Suppld Children Of This Parish Provided With Gifts And Christmas Party

Gifts for the crippled children of this parish has been made possible through various philanthropic channels, including the Monroe Literary Club. The silver tea held in conjunction with the book review by Mrs. H. F. Peterson, ended a flattering sum.

The tea, at McGuire Country Club, was a charming social affair attracting a large concourse of guests, who not only enjoyed the review of "Cluny Brown" by Mrs. Peterson, but the privilege of donating toward this worthy cause.

Mrs. Peterson, reviewing Marjorie's book, said: "Cluny Brown" is a charming character was unfolded Mrs. Peterson as a very tall, plain, attractive English girl of London who unwittingly made herself attractive to others by her straightforward, frank and unconventional personality. The story of her Uncle Am was very untrained and unorthodox girl, the knowledge of her place in life, in his words: "To know one's place is the essence of society."

Cluny might be found in the most unexpected places with a very set purpose in mind and unaware of any else being otherwise minded in her intentions. In these events Uncle

SHOPPING THE TOWN

with Camille

ON MY 'ROUND the town prowled dropped in at the FRANCES HOTEL PHARMACY and it was jammed with shoppers. I asked "what goes on here," and the saleslady informed me that all the ladies in the city apparently were stocking up on Yardley's. Word had also gotten 'round that only at the FRANCES HOTEL PHARMACY could be found those exotic perfumes by Weil and Max Factor products. You will be amazed at the things you can pick up at the FRANCES HOTEL PHARMACY for Christmas gifts.

WOULD YOU LIKE to look years younger day by day? It's possible if you make a regular date with MARIE WAMSLEY. Her beauty salon is thronging with women who want to retain their youthful skin and to have their hair treated by the special MARIE WAMSLEY method. Would you like to have a quick facial... one that will make your skin glow and tingle? MARIE WAMSLEY has the special formula. If you have a hair problem consult this beautician... there's a special permanent for dyed and bleached hair.

HAVE YOU SEARCHED in vain for the toys of yesterday? Search no more... they can be found at the LITTLE CORNER SHOP on South Grand street. Sleepy dolls, cradles, rocking horses, stuffed toys, gun sets, story books and meter wheel-barrows for the energetic youngster. MAUD HAYES has assembled a fascinating collection of Christmas gifts... you are sure to find just what you want in leather goods, vanities, perfumes, stationery, Xmas cards.

WHAT NICER TIME than right now to renew old friendships? What nicer way to say "meet me at the CASCADE" where good cheer simply radiates. THE CASCADE is especially gay now that the festive season is at hand. It keeps the mixologist busy with the Hot Tom and Jerry, made famous by HARRY STOUGH, your genial host. The CASCADE specialties are the best this side of the Mason-Dixon line... they are reminiscent of the Old South.

YOUR BEST FRIEND deserves the best so why not give her a piece of that beautiful Carmack pottery now on display at the MAY and GUTHRIE SHOP on South Grand street. Vivid colors and unusual designs set this pottery apart from all others... how your friends would love a set of those yellow, green and red dishes in the shape of an autumn leaf... Fluted dishes in glorious colors for various purposes can be found at the MAY-GUTHRIE SHOP. You will find sets of pyrex, sets of crystal, handpainted ewers, jars, china tea pots at an amazingly low price.

THIS YEAR IT'S glamour that counts... you must sparkle and with this thought in mind the R AND A is showing the most stunning jewelry in all Christendom. Of course there's plenty of costume jewelry but the antique jeweled pins are magnificent beyond words... No other Christmas gift can surpass a diamond ring, a diamond bracelet, a sapphire pin, or a necklace set in sparkling jewels. Other gifts of silver, leather, China, and that air of distinction associated with the home of precious antiques... the R AND A.

POP THE CORKS... shoot the works... the peace-time Christmas we have been promising ourselves is here and calls for celebration. To make it perfect serve fruit cake made from a famous Southern recipe and found on y at the CITY BAKERY. Your Christmas dinner will not be complete without a fruit cake... the kind your great-grandmother served. When you pop the corks have plenty of sandwiches made of MEL-O-TOAST bread on hand... the loaf is cut thin, you know, for sandwiches.

THE FLOWER SHOPPE personnel is working overtime taking care of the orders pouring in for flowers for the season of festivity. They are especially busy with corsages and boxes of flowers to be delivered to hostesses with a thank-you card from the guest they entertained. This is quite the nicest way of all to say "thank you" for a kindness rendered. Flowers are closely associated with the festive season. Remember please, the FLOWER SHOPPE will not make deliveries on Christmas day.

A TAILORED SUIT from FINK THE TAILOR ingeniously cut to fit here, there and everywhere, regardless of your size, is quite the nicest Christmas gift you can give friend- or that young daughter. No worry about the "too-long, too-short," variety for FINK THE TAILOR has skillfully proportioned these suits to meet your specific figure requirements. Materials in all the lush shades of winter and early spring are now shown. Brides are including these enchanting suits in their trousseaux... it wouldn't be complete without one.

THE LAST THING we can do for a loved one who has passed away is to engage the services of a professional who knows how to perform the last rites with reverence and understanding. This is the way things are done at the HALL FUNERAL HOME. Your loved ones sleep quietly and peacefully in this home where members of the family can spend those last precious moments in close communion. Let the HALL FUNERAL HOME arrange all the details.

EVEN IF YOUR GOWN is an imported model it will pass unnoticed if it is worn over an ill-fitting girdle. A single bulge will ruin the whole effect. Why not avoid these pitfalls by being fitted to a CHARMODE at SEARS, AND ROEBUCK's tomorrow? Now is the time to be fitted properly... buy your CHARMODE before you buy your gowns. Your stomach will be instantly flattened, bulges disappear and the flesh distributed properly. You will be delighted with the result.

A CHRISTMAS GIFT for every member of the family to enjoy all through the year... EAGLE PITCHER INSULATION installed in your home by the UNITED ELECTRIC SERVICE. On Christmas morning when the children are romping at an early hour, how comforting it will be to know the floors are nice and warm... no cold draft from the attic. Look to the future this year... give a practical gift in other words... EAGLE PITCHER INSULATION.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Grammont at Catalpa
Ernest D. Hottelway, Pastor
"The New Way" is the subject about which we shall think at the morning hour of worship. It is the program of Saint Paul, proclaimed and lived by Jesus Christ, and attested in the School of Hard Knocks by the faithful of the years. What is that way? Does it pay to use that way? "That which all Christians can do" is the theme for the evening hour of worship. A venerable man of God writes. He is ambitious for the cause. He wants the church to move forward, and influence people. And as he contemplates the part the average believer can play, he suggests the act for all God-fearers.

Both messages are based on the readings in the Bible assigned for the week. By the way, are you reading the passages assigned? You will be richer for the reading.
December is the Advent month. With your cooperation we can make this a month long to be remembered. Our motivation is The Christ, Whose We Are, and Whom We Serve.
You are invited to worship with us. A most cordial welcome awaits you.

JAP RELOCATION CAMP IN ARKANSAS IS NOW CLOSED

Last Of Group Of 354 Removed On November 30 From Rohwer Center

ROHWER.—The last group of evacuees left the Rohwer Relocation Center by train November 30, announced Project Director Ray D. Johnston. The departure of this group of 354 center residents marks the closing of the second relocation center in Arkansas. The Rohwer center near McGehee, and the Jerome center, near Dermott, were two of 10 such projects established to receive persons of Japanese descent when they were all evacuated from the West Coast area in 1942.

The first contingent of evacuees arrived at Rohwer on September 17, 1942. The peak population of the center was 8,567 but from time to time 11,926 people have been residents here. When Jerome closed on June 30, 1944, 2,482 evacuees were transferred from that center to Rohwer.

Residents have been leaving the center since early in 1943 to accept outside employment. Until January 1945, when the West Coast was opened to them, all relocation was outside the evacuated area, mostly in the East and Middle West. Since that time most of the people have been returning to the West Coast. Nearly all of Rohwer's residents came from California and approximately 50 per cent have returned there. The remainder have scattered throughout the country, principally in the Middle West. Only a few have settled in Arkansas. Sixteen families are now living near Little Rock and will engage in vegetable growing. In addition to these, about 45 people from two Arizona centers are now living on the Lee Wilson plantation in Northeast Arkansas.

Two-thirds of the evacuees are American citizens and nearly 900 soldiers who list next of kin at Rohwer have served in the U. S. army. Twenty-six from here were killed in action and 58 were wounded. They served in Italy, France and the South Pacific. Three distinguished service crosses, the nation's second highest honor, have been awarded soldiers from the center. All were posthumous awards.

The center grew much of its own food and successful experiments in irrigation were carried out. Irrigated cucumbers averaged six and one-half tons per acre and on the best plots production reached 12 tons. At five cents per pound, the value of the average yield was $550 per acre and in 1943, one plant averaged 4,000 pounds per acre and that, at four and one-half cents per pound was worth $500. One hundred and fifty acres were planted to irrigated vegetables at one time.

Approximately 700 acres of land have been cleared by the evacuees. They also assisted in digging 19 miles of main drainage ditches and seven miles of laterals. In addition to this five miles of bays were cleaned out to improve drainage. All work was on a voluntary basis and 85 or 90 per cent of the workers received $16 per month in addition to food, shelter, clothes and medical attention. The remaining 10 or 15 per cent of the workers who were doctors, lawyers, graduate nurses or supervisors, received the top wage of $19 per month.

Center schools which were maintained through the 12th grade had an average enrollment of 1,869 and high school graduates totaled 611. Both years the schools operated, they received a grade "A" rating from the state department of education. Other normal community activities were maintained such as churches, Boy and Girl Scouts and a center U. S. O. Evacuee residents contributed $3,038.80 to the 1945 Red Cross fund and the U. S. O. recently erected a monument in memory of Japanese-American soldiers from this center who were killed in World War II.

All of us did a magnificent job of cooperating with the railroads in prompt loading and releasing of cars during the war emergency but too many of us have relaxed since the end of hostilities in the Pacific and have contributed in no small way to this shortage of necessary equipment. RAIL EQUIPMENT HAS SHORTAGE

A. A. R. Takes Steps For Return Of Freight Cars Promptly

H. F. Easterling, chairman, Twin City car efficiency committee, recently returned from Dallas, Tex., where he was in attendance at a general meeting of the Southwest Shippers' Advisory Board. Some 350 members were in attendance, representing both shippers and receivers of freight and the railroads. The program was constructive and some very instructive addresses were made by prominent guest speakers. Principally, C. R. McGee, vice chairman, car service division, Association of American Railroads, Washington, D. C. Mr. McGee pointed out that we are again experiencing an acute shortage of railway equipment, particularly closed box cars, throughout the nation. He stated that action has been taken to remedy this situation and of particular importance to shippers of freight in this territory is that the A. A. R. has issued quota orders to Eastern and Southeastern railroads to return during November to Western railroads loaded or empty Western line cars at the rate of 2,500 per week, until a total of 10,000 is returned.

Free for Asthma During Winter

If you suffer with those terrible attacks of Asthma when it is cold and damp; if raw, wintry winds make you choke as if each gasp for breath was the very last; if restful sleep is impossible because of the struggle to breathe; if you feel the disease slowly wearing your life away, don't fail to send at once to the Frontier Asthma Co. for a free trial of a remarkable method. No matter where you live or whether you have any faith in any remedy under the sun, and for this free trial, if you have suffered a lifetime and tried everything you could, and without relief; even if you are discouraged, do not abandon hope. I send today for this free trial. It will do you nothing. Address: Frontier Asthma Co., 800-S Frontier Bldg., 2 Niagara Street, Buffalo 1, New York.

JAP RELOCATION CAMP IN ARKANSAS IS NOW CLOSED

Last Of Group Of 354 Relocated On November 30 From Rohwer Center

ROHWER—The last group of evacuees left the Rohwer Relocation Center by train November 30, announced Project Director Ray Johnston. The departure of this group of 354 center residents marks the closing of the second relocation center in Arkansas. The Rohwer center, near McGehee, and the Jerome center, near Dermott, were two of 10 such projects established to receive persons of Japanese descent when they were all evacuated from the West Coast area in 1942.

The first contingent of evacuees arrived at Rohwer on September 17, 1942. The peak population of the center was 8,567 but from time to time 11,926 people have been residents here. When Jerome closed on June 30, 1944, 2,482 evacuees were transferred from that center to Rohwer.

Residents have been leaving the center since early in 1943 to accept outside employment. Until January 1945, when the West Coast was reopened to them, all relocation outside the evacuated area, mostly in the East and Middle West. Since that time most of the people have been returning to the West Coast. Nearly all of Rohwer's residents came from California and approximately 50 per cent have returned here. The remainder have been scattered throughout the country, principally in the Middle West. Only a few have settled in Arkansas. Sixteen families are now living near Little Rock and will engage in vegetable growing. In addition to these, about 45 people from two Arizona centers are now living on the Lee Wilson plantation in Northeast Arkansas.

Two-thirds of the evacuees are American citizens and nearly 900 soldiers who list next of kin at Rohwer have served in the U. S. army. Twenty-six from here were killed in action and 58 were wounded. They served in Italy, France and the South Pacific. Three distinguished service crosses, the nation's second highest honor, have been awarded soldiers from the center. All were posthumous awards.

The center grew much of its own food and successful experiments in irrigation were carried out. Irrigated cucumbers averaged six and one-half tons per acre and on the best plots production reached 12 tons. At five cents per pound, the value of the average yield was $550 per acre and the maximum yield was worth $1,300. In 1943, egg plant averaged 4,000 pounds per acre and that, at four and one-half cents per pound, was worth $630. One hundred and fifty acres were planted to irrigated vegetables at one time.

Approximately 700 acres of land have been cleared by the evacuees. They also assisted in digging 19 miles of main drainage, ditches and seven miles of laterals. In addition to this five miles of bayous were cleaned out to improve drainage. All work was on a voluntary basis and 85 or 90 per cent of the workers received $16 per month in addition to food, shelter, clothes and medical attention. The remaining 10 or 15 per cent of the workers who were doctors, lawyers, graduate nurses or supervisors, received the top wage of $19 per month.

Center schools, which were maintained through the 12th grade had an average enrollment of 1,869 and high school graduates totaled 611. Both years the schools operated, they received a grade "A" rating from the state department of education. Other normal community activities were maintained such as churches, Boy and Girl Scouts and a center U. S. O. Evacuee residents contributed $3,036.80 to the 1945 Red Cross fund and the U. S. O. recently erected a monument in memory of Japanese-American soldiers from this center who were killed in World War II.

NEED CIVILIANS FOR CAMP SHELBY

Six hundred and forty-four enlisted men who have been assigned to clerical duties at the army separation center, Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., are patiently waiting for civilians to take their jobs in order that they too may obtain the much coveted honorable discharge. Many of these enlisted men whose job is to process some eleven hundred of their fellow service men through the separation center each day are themselves high point men who have seen overseas service. The army has issued orders that all of these enlisted men are to be replaced by civilians but they cannot be released until civilian replacements are found.

The army separation center, Camp Shelby, is the major discharge point for Louisiana and Mississippi service men, the last stop before home for countless boys from the Mississippi delta states. Civilian employees needed to replace enlisted personnel at Camp Shelby include clerks at salaries ranging from $1,704 to $2,320 a year. Persons with computing, payroll or accounting experience will be offered the higher salary rates. Large numbers of typists at $1,704 and $1,902 a year are also needed. There is adequate low rate public and private housing both for single persons and families at Camp Shelby and in the city of Hattiesburg.

Interested persons with appropriate clerical experience will be hired without the requirement of passing a written civil service examination. Applicants should contact the secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Room 302, Post Office Building, Monroe, La., at once. Representatives of Camp Shelby separation center will visit Monroe within the next two weeks to interview and hire qualified persons who have applied.

RAIL EQUIPMENT HAS SHORTAGE

A. A. R. Takes Steps For Return Of Freight Cars Promptly

H. F. Easterling, chairman, Twin City car efficiency committee, recently returned from Dallas, Tex., where he was in attendance at a general meeting of the Southwest Shippers' Advisory Board. Some 350 members were in attendance, representing both shippers and receivers of freight and the railroads. The program was constructive and some very instructive addresses were made by prominent guest speakers. Principally, C. R. McGee, vice chairman, car service division, Association of American Railroads, Washington, D. C. Mr. McGee pointed out that we are again experiencing an acute shortage of railway equipment, particularly closed box cars, throughout the nation. He stated that action has been taken to remedy this situation and of particular importance to shippers of freight in this territory is that the A. A. R. has issued quota orders to Eastern and Southeastern railroads to return during November to Western railroads loaded or empty Western line cars at the rate of 2,500 per week, until a total of 10,000 is returned.

All of us did a magnificent job of cooperating with the railroads in prompt loading and releasing of cars during the war emergency but too many of us have relaxed since the end of hostilities in the Pacific and have contributed in no small way to this shortage of necessary equipment. Our job is not done. There is still plenty of war material to be moved and the grain season is again upon us which will require a large percentage of the available equipment and we earnestly request each user of railway equipment to speed up, the prompt release of cars that we may help ourselves in this way.

The Southwestern Shippers' Advisory Board is doing a wonderful job for we shippers, and anyone in the Twin Cities who desires to affiliate with this organization, if you will contact Mr. Easterling he will be glad to assist you. The secretary of this Board talked with Mr. Easterling at great length about establishing a joint loss and damage committee in the Twin Cities and he will be glad to receive comments from anyone interested in such a committee here.

Character building plays an important part in the program of the Salvation Army. The Red Shield Club is doing its best to help create good character in the boys of the Twin Cities. Boys' clubs have as their purpose the health, educational, vocational, social and character development of the young. As a result there is, and should be, a decided reduction in juvenile delinquency wherever they are established.

A boy may be at loose ends because his family is economically unsafe, and be left to his own devices much of the time. Give that boy a place to play and to develop his body and mind and some direction in character building, and you have every opportunity to turn out a good citizen. Starting Monday, basketball games will be played at the O. P. H. S. gymnasium where 72 boys will be playing. Contests are scheduled Mondays and Thursdays and on Tuesdays at the L. T. I. Every young person is invited to the gym.

The Red Shield Club for Boys has a diversified program for all boys of the Twin Cities. It is non-sectarian. The club is a place where a boy can spend his leisure time and gives him an opportunity to develop his mind and body. It also teaches him how to be a good sport and what fair play means.—Capt. Jack Hesketh, Director.

For many years the Salvation Army has been operating in Monroe without a proper place to worship in. A place to worship and place for the youth of our parish to spend their free time is vitally needed. Plans are now being formulated for a new Home, and Mr. Otto Passman is chairman. We will appreciate any consideration the public can give to our building fund, no matter how large or small. All checks should be sent to Mr. Passman, c/o Passman Equipment Co. (Make checks payable to the Salvation Army Building Fund). Youth plays an important part in our program and we realize that "today's boys and girls will be the men and women of tomorrow."

A highly important work, one performed unostentatiously and probably not generally known to the rank and file, is that of Good Fellows. While sponsored by the News-Star-World, the actual work is performed by the Salvation Army, which investigates hundreds of cases that are presented to determine worthiness or its lack. Then the Salvation Army, through Captain Jack Hesketh, sees that huge supplies of food, clothing and toys are secured. These are arranged in special containers and each family that has been investigated and proved essentially needy is made to enjoy a "Merry Christmas."

For many years the Salvation Army has performed this function in the community and through the years thousands of desolate homes have been made cheerful and the occupants made to feel that indeed "Someone does care." This is practical Christianity—one that goes out on the highways and byways of life to scatter a degree of the good things among God's own children who may not otherwise have a share in the great and glorious holiday season.

To the Salvation Army goes a large degree of credit for the accomplishments of the organization wherever it is established.

URGENT PUBLIC NOTICE

We Hate To Admit It---
BUT---IT'S TRUE!

So Far...The Proud Record that Ouachita Parish has held for "Going Over The Top" in War Bond Drives, is now looming up as A MISERABLE FAILURE.

With a quota of only $585,000.00 in "E" Bond Sales, we have to date only $210,000.00, leaving a balance of $375,000.00.

NOW!...WE MUST...WE WILL...WE CAN...do something about it!

It's going to call for Action on the part of every one of the 63,000 citizens of Ouachita Parish. It would be disastrous for us to fail our government at this time.

DO SOMETHING...OUACHITA CITIZENS...AND DO IT QUICK! You have the money...so buy Monday or before Dec. 8th the offical closing of this drive.

BUY ALL THE "E" Bonds You Can.

YOUR GOVERNMENT HAS CALLED ON OUACHITA PARISH AND SO, Ouachita Parish has turned a deaf ear on this drastic appeal.

LET'S GO...WE MUST...WE WILL...and WE CAN

THERE COULD BE PLENTY OF WORSE
WEATHERED IN...
LUCKY THERE WAS AN OLD LANDING
STRIP HERE...

I COULD USE A DISH OF THAT SHUT-WINK MYSELF —GUESS I'LL PASS UP THE SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND GET IN SOME FAST
SACK TIME...

PLENTY OF DANGER STILL
—YOU CAN FEEL THE TENSION!
I'M KINDA SLEEP--

I WAS AFRAID OF
THIS... I'D BETTER
CHECK IN... THEY'LL PROBABLY NEED
EVERY MAN WHO CAN HANDLE A GUN!

THEY SEEM TO BE MUSTERING IN THAT BUILDING... I DON'T HEAR ANY SHOOTING...

MISS COBB IS COMFORTABLE WITH THE OTHER PASSENGERS IN THE HOSTEL... I'LL BUNK IN THE OFFICERS' QUARTERS... THIS PLACE IS PLENTY WILD AND REMOTE... I'M SURELY GLAD THERE'S A YANK GARRISON

THESE JOKERS MUST HAVE THE MORNING WATCH OR THEY WOULDN'T BE CAULKED
OFF THIS EARLY... HQHUM...

LATER...
HUH?
LIEUT. RAY!
THIS IS

THROUGH
PLENTY TROUBLE,
BUT I THINK WE'LL BE ABLE TO HANG ON... IF WE JUST HAVE ENOUGH POWER TO LAST UNTIL THE END...

SINGLE WING TO THE RIGHT... SMITH BACK... THE
TO GO THROUGH CENTER AND HITS A STONE WALL...

DICK TRACY

WHAT
TRACY CAUGHT SIGHT OF HIM JUST AS HE WENT OUT THE OTHER END OF THE CATTLE

ITCHY CLIMBED INTO ONE OF
THE SQUAD CARS. BUT JUST AS HE PULLED AWAY, TRACY REACHED THE CAR AND GRABBED ON THE REAR — IN FACT, THE TRUNK WAS OPEN AND DICK CLIMBED IN.
THE OTHER SQUADS
GAVE CHASE

MEANWHILE, ITCHY HAS MADE HIS WAY BACK TO THE CITY, AND AIDED BY DARKNESS HAS SUCCESSFULLY
ARRIVED AT A CERTAIN BUNGALOW.
THOSE
KNOCKED
THE TRUNK

LEAVING THE STREET AND DRIVING
THROUGH SHRUBS AND BUSHES, ITCHY
SWINGS THE CAR INTO A CERTAIN BACK-YARD, THROWS THE GEARS INTO REVERSE AND DELIBERATELY RAMS THE BRICK WALL.
I SAY, DETECTIVE,
ARE YOU THERE?

WHAT KIND OF DRIVER
ARE YOU? — I'LL — I'LL HAVE YOU PINCHED,
YOU DRUNK!

THIS GUY'S A
ALIVE.
HEY, KITTY,
IT'S ME — ITCHY!
ITCHY OLIVER.
REMEMBER?
WHO?

ITCHY! WHY DIDN'T YOU SAY SO? — BUT TELL ME,
WHY THE SQUAD CAR? GET
IT OUT OF HERE. YOU'LL HAVE US ALL PINCHED

I'LL GET IT OUT OF HERE,
ALL RIGHT, BUT BELIEVE ME, KITTY, I HAVE A PRIZE — A REAL PRIZE.

OTHER THAN DICK TRACY, THE MAN WHO CAUSED THE DEATH OF
YOUR HUSBAND
B-B EYES.
DICK TRACY? —
YOU — YOU WOULDN'T
THAT ★?
YES, HE DID CAUSE THE DEATH OF MY HUSBAND.
B-B EYES —
FIVE YEARS AGO.

I KNEW YOU'D LIKE TO GET
ALL LIKE TO
BUT THIS SQUAD CAR — THEY'LL BE LOOKING FOR IT.
IT'S TOO RISKY,
ITCHY.

AFTER WE GET HIM OUT, I'LL ABANDON THE SQUAD CAR SEVERAL BLOCKS DOWN THE STREET. IT'S A CINCH!

IF B-B EYES WERE HERE HE'D DO IT. HE HATED THAT COP.
YOU'RE RIGHT!
WHAT DO YOU WANT ME TO DO, ITCHY?

WEREN'T YOU JUST A TINY BIT OF A HERO, BILL? CENTERFORD WILL LOOK AWFULLY SILLY IF YOU WEREN'T!

NO MORE THAN THE NEXT GUY SALLY! THE BILL JONES CITED IN THE COMMUNIQUE WAS SOMEBODY ELSE!

RECKON I'D BETTER LEAVE TOWN, BECAUSE I DON'T WANT TO HURT ANYBODY... BESIDES, ELISSA, MY GIRL, IS MARRYING GERALD ARNHOLTER, THE GUY WHO COLLECTED THE MONEY FOR MY STATUE!

LOOK, BILL! THEY'RE SETTING UP THE STATUE NOW!

I'D LIKE TO SEE THE DEDICATION, THOUGH! IT'D BE LIKE ATTENDING MY OWN FUNERAL!

WE CAN, PAL! IF SALLY WILL GET US CIVILIAN CLOTHES FOR A DISGUISE, WE'LL WATCH FROM THE OUTSKIRTS OF THE CROWD!

AT THE OFFICE OF GERALD ARNHOLTER, TREASURER OF THE BILL JONES MEMORIAL SOCIETY

IT WON'T TAKE LONG FOR CENTERFORD TO FIND OUT THAT BILL'S STATUE DIDN'T COST $25,000, BUT BY THAT TIME, ELISSA AND I WILL BE FAR AWAY!

GERALD! I HAD TO SEE YOU, SO I CAME EARLY!

ELISSA!

BILL WAS AN OLD SWEETHEART OF MINE, GERALD, AND I WANT TO SEE HIS STATUE! MUST WE LEAVE BEFORE THE DEDICATION?

YES, PET! IT'S A MATTER OF--ER--URGENT BUSINESS!

BUT I HAVE AN IDEA! WORKMEN ARE SETTING UP THE STATUE IN THE COURTHOUSE SQUARE! YOU CAN SEE IT BEFORE THE CEREMONY!

I'VE GOT TWO OF FATHER'S SUITS! THEY MAY NOT FIT EXACTLY RIGHT, BUT YOU CAN WEAR THEM!

THANKS, MISS! BILL AND I WILL FIND A PLACE TO CHANGE!

REFRESHED AND MOUNTED ON SWIFT CAMELS, TARZAN AND HIS NEW-FOUND ALLIES SPED TOWARD THE CITY OF KHAN.

"IF WE ARE TO SMASH THE USURPER'S POWER, WE MUST BUILD A MIGHTY FORCE," TARZAN WARNED. "OUR NUMBERS ARE FEW, AND ORIZU'S MANY."

FANNING OUT OVER THE DESERT THEY CAME UPON SCORES OF TOWNSMEN, DRIVEN FROM THE CITY BY THE TERROR OF THE KHAN'S GUARDS.

SCORES OF RECRUITS, FIRED BY TARZAN'S INSPIRING CALL TO ARMS, RALLIED TO THE CAUSE OF FREEDOM.

SOON A GREAT HOST SWEEPED FIERCELY FROM THE DESERT LIKE A GATHERING STORM, TO ASSAIL THEIR HATED ENEMY.

MEANWHILE, IN HIS PALACE, ORIZU KHAN SAT EVILLY CONTEMPLATING THE FRUITS OF HIS MOST RECENT TRIUMPH.

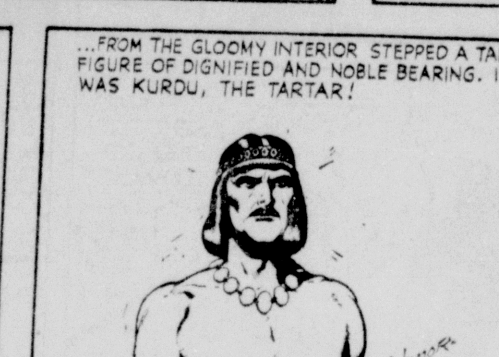

THE REVENGE HE HAD LONG PLANNED WOULD NOW BE HIS. "SUMMON THE PRISON-ERS," HE COMMANDED HARSHLY.

WITH ALACRITY THE GUARDS DESCENDED INTO THE DUNGEONS BELOW THE PALACE.

...FROM THE GLOOMY INTERIOR STEPPED A TALL FIGURE OF DIGNIFIED AND NOBLE BEARING. IT WAS KURDU, THE TARTAR!

FROM ANOTHER CELL LURUL! CAME FORTH, LEERING BOLDY, THE CAPTAIN SMIRKED: "SOON... WHEN YOUR LOVER DIES, I'LL HAVE YOU FOR MY OWN!"

NEXT WEEK: USURPER!

Little Orphan Annie

DECENT PEOPLE, LIKE THE TOGGLES, HESITATE TO BELIEVE GHASTLY THINGS-- REMEMBER HOW WE SCOFFED AT THE FIRST ATROCITY REPORTS?

IT--IT'S HORRIBLE-- BUT IT'S TRUE-- I HEARD THEM-- BR-R-R! THEY'RE PLANNING TO SEND ONE OF ANNIE'S EARS TO MR. WARBUCKS!

WHAT A TERRIBLE THING! BUT WHO ARE THEY?

A GERMAN BARON AND A JAP GENERAL. HERE TO SEE MR. TIDNAB-- I SAW THEM! IT WASN'T JUST ANNIE'S IMAGINATION!

B-BUT WE WON THE WAR-- ALL THE BAD JAPS AND GERMANS-- ... I THOUGHT--

YOU THOUGHT THEY ALL WERE IN PRISON--SO DID I-- BUT IT SEEMS THAT THE WAR ISN'T OVER-- AND IF--IF THESE FIENDS SUCCEED--

BUT HOW CAN THEY? WHAT CAN THEY DO?

IF THEY GET THE SECRET OF ATOMIC ENERGY FROM WARBUCKS-- WHY-- ANYTHING COULD HAPPEN-- IN THE TWINKLING OF AN EYE-- WE ALL COULD BE WIPED OUT-- OR ENSLAVED FOREVER!

B-BUT, GEORGE! MR. WARBUCKS IS SO STRONG-- SO PATRIOTIC-- HE'D NEVER GIVE IN TO THEM--

YIPE! AND THOSE GUYS WILL SHIP ME TO DADDY, A PIECE AT A TIME! THERE MUST BE SOME WAY OUT O' THIS!

OH-- WE MUST GET AWAY FROM THIS HORRIBLE ISLAND!

B-BUT HOW? EVERY PERSON ON THIS ISLAND IS ONE OF TIDNAB'S HIRED KILLERS--

DON'T ASK NOW! QUICK! GRAB SOME WARM CLOTHES AND LET'S GET OUT O' HERE!

LEAVE TH' LIGHT ON, SO THEY WON'T GET WISE TOO SOON! TWIFFY SAYS THERE'S A LITTLE SAILBOAT IN TH' BACK COVE--

TWIFFY? HM-M-- THAT GHOST! I HOPE IT ISN'T A GHOST BOAT!

THIS IS A DESPERATE GAMBLE! WHAT IF WE ARE CAUGHT?

DON'T STOP TO WORRY ABOUT THAT, GEORGE! THINK WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF WE STAY HERE!

SH-H--THERE IT IS-- TIED TO THE END OF THAT LONG, RICKETY PIER--NO ONE IN SIGHT--

C'MON, SANDY! WE'LL GO FIRST-- AND SEE WHAT HAPPENS--

THAT YOU, CHUCK? ULP--

BACK IN YER HOLE, MAC! ONE TWITCH OR TWITTER OUT O' YOU AND SANDY'LL RIP YER GULLET OUT! SEE? GUARD HIM, SANDY!

O.K., FOLKS! GRAB TH' TILER, AUNT SONJA! GIMME A HAND, WILL YUH, UNCLE GEORGE

WERE MOVING FAST ALREADY-- B-BUT WHAT IF THAT MAN MAKES TROUBLE?

IN THAT CASE, SANDY'LL FIX HIM SO WE WON'T HAVE TO WORRY 'BOUT HIM ANY MORE!

SYNOPSIS

SADDLESOAP, YOU STUBBORN MULE, OUR MAGNETIC COMPASS INDICATES THAT WE'RE 27° OFF COURSE!

SMILIN' JACK

THAT COMPASS MUST HAVE GONE BERSERK! I GET A STEADY 'ON COURSE' FROM THE NORTH-EAST LEG OF THE RALEIGH BEAM!

JACK

WE SHOULD BE OVER RICHMOND BY NOW AND YET WE CAN'T GET ANY STATION BUT RALEIGH!

--- AND NOW THAT WE HAVE REACHED THE EDGE OF THE OVERCAST AND CAN SEE WATER AHEAD, YOU MUST ADMIT YOU'RE WRONG!

OKAY, JUNIOR! WE'LL SIMPLY FLY CONTACT AND STILL COMPLETE OUR MISSION OF REVENGE FOR THE AXIS BY BLOWING WASHINGTON AND NEW YORK-- TO ATOMS!

MEANTIME-- GENERAL COTTONGIN, HAVING DECLARED A STATE OF EMERGENCY, HAS TELETYPE ALL OTHER RADIO STATIONS EXCEPT RALEIGH TO GO OFF THE AIR!

THE REGULAR NORTHEAST LEG OF THE RALEIGH BEAM WAS GRADUALLY SWUNG BY A MOBILE UNIT SO THAT THE B-29 WOULD FOLLOW IT OUT OVER THE OCEAN!

--- NO TOWNS WILL BE DIS-INTEGRATED BY THE ATOMIC FLASH WHEN THE 29 IS BROUGHT DOWN!

BUT WHAT ABOUT SMILIN' JACK IN THE JET JOB? --- I GUESS THERE ISN'T MUCH CHANCE FOR JACK!

WHEN JACK VOLUNTEERED FOR THIS KAMIKAZE MISSION, HE KNEW THERE WAS LITTLE CHANCE TO SURVIVE!

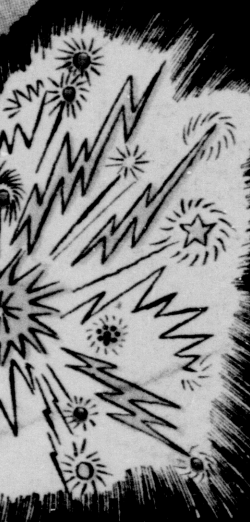

---IF HE GETS CLOSE ENOUGH TO SHOOT, HE ALSO WILL BE IN RANGE OF THE ATOMIC EXPLOSION AND ALSO---

GENERAL, LOOK---! AT THE RADAR PICTURE JACK IS RAPIDLY OVERTAKING THE 29--- THE END WILL COME ANY SECOND NOW!

GULP---WELL, THERE'S THE 29--- I DON'T DARE LET IT GET BACK OVER THE POPULATED AREAS. I MUST BRING IT DOWN NOW, OVER WATER!

--- THE SUREST AND QUICKEST WAY IS TO CRASH THIS JET INTO HIM-- MILLIONS OF LIVES DEPEND ON THIS!

IT LOOKED SANDY. MY HIGH-PRICED FOOD AROUND LIKE L.S. THEN YOU RUSHED HAMMER AND NAILS—

I TURNED RIGHT OVER PER ANOTHER NAPI!

THE CORONER'S STATEMENT THAT THE BLOW WAS STRUCK BY A RIGHT-HANDED ASSAILANT WAS ALL THE PROOF I NEEDED...

GAS EDSON

AND WHEN YOU TOSSED THE HAMMER TO ANDY AND TOLD HIM TO DRIVE A NAIL INTO THE TABLE HE DID IT WITH HIS LEFT HAND!!

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS, BIM—

HAW! ANDY'S GOOD OLD LEFT-HANDED OF SAILS, WALLOP TOOK THE WIND OUT OF THE PROSECUTOR'S GOT SAILS—

SPEAKING GOOD OLD LEFT-HANDED OF SAILS, I'VE GOT ANOTHER SURPRISE FOR YOU!

ANDY IS TO BE RELEASED TODAY, BUT I COULDN'T LET THIS CASE GO UNSOLVED, SO I JUST SAILED INTO IT!

AT THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY'S OFFICE...

OLD MR. MYTH HAD ONE HOBBY—BUILDING SHIP MODELS. THEY WERE ALL OVER HIS MANSION—

HE WAS WORKING ON THIS ONE WHEN HE WAS BRUTALLY KILLED—AND HE KNEW HE WAS IN DANGER—

READ WHAT HE SCRIBBLED ON THE INSIDE EDGE OF THIS SAIL—"AFRAID—HOUSEKEEPER REDDAGOR AND HER BROTHER—INVENTORY IN HULL"—

AND HERE IS THAT LIST OF HIS WEALTH. TALLIES EXACTLY WITH THE LOOT FOUND ON THAT PAIR WHO KILLED EACH OTHER LAST WEEK IN METRO-CITY!

ANDY!

WELL, ANYWAY ANDY—YOU WON THE TEN BUCKS!

YES, JON—BUT THIS IS ONE LITTLE BET I WISH I'D LOST—
